Couple Are Driving East After Rites in Colorado

En route to Boston, Mass., where they will make their home are Mr. and Mrs. James Lloyd Harvey whose June 27 nuptials took place at St. Thomas Aquinas chapel, Boulder, Colo. The Rev. Edward Vollmer O.S.B. performed the double rite ceremony.

The former Jacqueline Catherine Braklage, the bride in the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Braklage of Boulder. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Elmer Harvey, of East Maple road.

WALTZ LENGTH white nylon tulle was selected for the bridal gown, along with a full, pearl crown and a fingertip veil of illusion net. The bride carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Shirley Origer of Boulder was the bride's only attendant. She wore a waltz-length gown of Nile green nylon net, green sash and a stole. A crescent-shaped bou-quet was fashioned with bronze carnations. George Van Hoorebeke of Boulder was the best man, while Edwin Johnson and Dale Brown, both of Denver, acted as the ring bearers.

FOR HER DAUGHTER'S wedding Mrs. Braklage wore a cocktail-length dress of mink lace with black accessories, and a corsage of tallman roses. Mrs. Harvey chose pink accessories to wear with her gown of heliotrope blue silk taffeta. Feathered pink carnations were her flowers.

A wedding breakfast at the Ping-staff House followed the ceremony. After an afternoon reception at the home of the bride's parents, the newlyweds left for a brief honeymoon in the Rockies. They will then drive East by way of Milwaukee and Birmingham, ending their trip in Boston. For traveling the new Mrs. Harvey donned a costume suit of pearl gray and white silk and matching accessories.

WALNUT LAKE NEWS

By LOUISE ROBERTS

The July meeting of the Garden club, originally scheduled for today, has been postponed until Thursday, July 23.

The Civic Study club of Detroit had a picnic lunch at the home of Mrs. C. K. Holliday on Sunnycrest drive, Tuesday, June 30. The afternoon members went to the cerebral palsy center at the Children's Hospital in Michigan at Farmington, where they dedicated the reception room furnished by them during the past year.

Mrs. Robert Coffey has sold her home on Walnut Lake road and with her small son Patrick will leave soon for Hyannis, Mass., where she will make her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dean. Marilyn, Patricia Ann and Susan Coffey, of Detroit, Mrs. Coffey's nieces, have been visiting her before her departure.

A farewell breakfast for Mrs. Coffey was given July 1 by Mrs. Frank Morton of Middlebelt road. The event also served to introduce to their future neighbors Mrs. Robert Stevenson, her sister Jean and the Stevenson children. Mrs. Stevenson and her husband have purchased the Coffey home. Attending the breakfast were Mrs. Vernon Nickel, Mrs. John Nahabedian, Mrs. Henry Jokela, Mrs. Mahlon Sutton, Mrs. Edward Sims, Mr. Harry Dawson, Mrs. Reginald Smith, Mrs. R. C. Banker, Mrs. Edward Nightingale, Mrs. George Osterbeck, Mrs. Howard Gould, Mrs. Mogens Klopp, Mrs. John Kurdell and Mrs. George Young of Birmingham.

Visiting Manitoulin Island and cruising in nearby waters are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Shank of Inkster road, who sailed from Detroit last Friday for two weeks of fishing and relaxation. They are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne Lee of Grasse Pointe Woods aboard the latter's cruiser. While the Shanks are away, Barbara and Marilyn Shank have six grandnieces their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Duval.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. William Moyns and their children, Walter, 8, and Linda, who come to their new home on Darramoor road from Southfield township. Mrs. Moyns is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Zane, who have also recently built on Darramoor. Moyns is factory superintendent of a tool and die shop.

Six years old on the last day of June was Joyce Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Smith of Westmoor road, who celebrated with a beach party. Her guests were Kathy Eddy, Jeanne Fockler, Christie and Charlie Gould, Billy, Johnnie and Sissy Johnson, Nelson and Darrow Long, Barbara Lantz, Larry Wells and Joan and Joel Smith.

Co-hostesses of a June 26 farewell party honoring Audrey Proving of Birmingham, who is moving to California, were Carol Camp, daughter of the Paul Camps, and Pat Janicki, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Janicki. About 35 classmates gathered at the Sub 1 clubhouse for an evening of dancing and swimming.

The William Losch family of Daintree road, returned Tuesday from Wakefield, Wis., where they spent a few days with Mrs. Losch's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Eber-

SEALSKIN SWIMSUIT—Swimming in sealskin is easy for Jacqueline Gray who models this rain-fur style at a Las Vegas, Nev., fashion show. All agree the skin looks better on Jacqueline than it did on the seal.
