Localities are welcoming back Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Keller, of Wing Lake road, who have been absent since April 1 on an extended trip abroad. Their travels in Europe covered Italy, France, Belgium, Holland, Switzerland and England, the highlights of which read like excerpts from a vacation brochure.

After jockeying at Naples, the Kellers took the famed Amalfi Drive from Naples to Sorrento. They visited the ruins and excavations of Pompeii in Rome, St. Peter's Cathedral after an audience with the Pope at the Vatican; watched glass-making and enjoyed a gondola ride on the canals of old Venice.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood P. Engel recently entertained a group of friends at a dinner in their Wing Lake road home. During the evening festivities, guests drank a toast to the engagement of Miss Beverly Kleist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kleist of Birmingham, to Herbert E. Kendall, son of E. M. Kendall and the late Mrs. Kendall, of Norwich, Conn.

Other dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. James Sipple, both of Royal Oak, Miss Ellen Imboden and Ben Bowen of Detroit.

The Engels attended the formal Patriotic Ball given recently by the Detroit Historical society guild, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Sawert, of Detroit. The colorful highlight of the evening was a parade of flags honoring the patriotic societies of Detroit and surrounding areas. Proceeds from the ball will go to further the cause of local history.

Plans which have been under way for many weeks will culminate tomorrow for the Lemke family of Wing Lake road. Dr. and Mrs. Lemke, with daughters Nancy and Susie, sail from Montreal aboard the Empress of Scotland for a summer in Europe. Accompanying them will be a group of 13 girls from the Sacred Heart academy of Detroit and St. Louis. Their itinerary includes the principal cities of Italy, France and Switzerland.

The social calendar of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Labelle, of Birmingham road, has been rather crowded of late. They recently hosted a small dinner party honoring their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Carlisle, of Temple City, Calif., who flew in from the coast to spend a few days with the Labelles. The Carlises are former residents of Birmingham.

Prior to the arrival of her guests, Mrs. Labelle had just returned from a 10-day motoring trip to Lake Geneva, Wis., accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Schupp, of Saginaw and Mrs. George Bernhardt of Birmingham where they attended the graduation of Mrs. Schupp's son, David, 18, from Northwestern Military Academy. Following the ceremonies, the group toured the state of Wisconsin, visiting Land-O-Lakes, Haneey Park and the well known King's Gateway Inn.

An English countryside atmosphere pervaded the laws of the Foggett community last Sunday afternoon when a picnic "on the commons" was staged by the local gentry. The arrangements for the affair were chairman Mrs. George Mack, assisted by Mrs. Earl P. Lutz, Mrs. G. S. Whitaker, Mrs. C. J. Van Halteren, Mrs. George L. McCain and Mrs. H. E. Twetmeyer. The program included a winner roast, ballgame, tennis, everything but the fox and hounds. So successful was the initial venture that plans are afoot to make it an annual affair.

One member of the cast of "Royal Family," comedy which opened Tuesday evening at the Hill-City Playhouse, has been having difficulty with "stage business" during rehearsals.

Teresa Way Sikorski, with her arm in a sling, was hampered in her role as the mad scientist who naturally spends some time tending and carrying for the Cleveland clan in the play. Mrs. Sikorski was slightly injured in an automobile accident recently. However, the performance went beautifully on opening night.

Student activities: Local graduates of Bloomfield Hills high school find their schedules heavy these days. Over the weekend Dick Martz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence S. Martz, of Wing Lake, hosted at dinner for a group of his classmates prior to attending the senior prom Saturday night. Guesting were Jane Corrigan, Bill Meyer, Pine Lake, Rima Nichols, Bloomfield Hills, Pat Tuttle and Arthur Leaf of Wing Lake.

TWO BIRMINGHAM COEDS will be among the graduating class at Western Michigan College, Kalamazoo, Saturday morning, June 13. Joyce B. Daniels (left), 764 Southfield road, will receive a bachelor of science degree and an elementary certificate. Patricia B. Daug (right), 18722 San Diego drive, will receive a bachelor of arts degree with her elementary certificate.
