Walnut Lake News

By LOUISE ROBERTS
Mayfair 6-3743

The Inter-Lake League of Women Voters has been renamed West Bloomfield League of Women Voters, in keeping with the reduced area now covered by its activities. Although women from outside the township will still be welcomed as members, the local chapter feels that it cannot adequately report on candidates and elections of townships other than West Bloomfield.

The executive board of the West Bloomfield League met June 3 at the home of Mrs. E. C. Banker, recently chosen finance chairman. Mrs. Graham Overgard, of Walnut Lake road, is chairman of the voter service committee which investigates the qualifications of candidates and the issues in local elections. Next project of the League will be collaboration with other chapters in preparation of "We Represent You," a booklet listing names and addresses of local, state and national office holders.

On June 2 a group of members and non-members met at the home of Mrs. Philip Enrich to make plans for a study of township government. Those present were Mrs. O. S. Koskinki, Mrs. Thomas Snyder, Mrs. Leo Giddings, Mrs. J. B. Roberts, Mrs. Banker, Mrs. Overgard and Mrs. Baruch.

Walnut Lake was well represented at the Michigan State college Junior Sing at East Lansing on May 21. Ronnie Nightingale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nightingale, led his fraternity, SAE, and Lee C. Hanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee D. Hanson, led Psi Upsilon which won for the fifth consecutive time. Mr. and Mrs. Hanson and daughter Sally attended. The Hanson went to East Lansing again on May 26 for the ceremonies in which Lee was commissioned as a second lieutenant in the U. S. Army.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jokela are back in their Sunnycrest Drive home after a winter in Florida and a month with relatives in Detroit. Also returning north in May were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heinman, who spent the winter in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Snyder and daughter Joy Ann were guests of the Leo Giddings at their cottage near Mt. on Memorial Day weekend.

Lee McNell, for several years manager of the Walnut Lake Grocery, has sold his home and moved to Centerville, Ohio, the home of his mother and married daughter. New manager of the Walnut Lake grocery is Bob Watson, who now lives in Rochester but hopes to move to Walnut Lake. Watson has been associated with Wrigley markets in Pontiac and Royal Oak.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bosard were honored on the evening of June 3 when their daughter Jean, assisted by Mrs. Harry Gully of Detroit, held open house for them on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary. Besides friends from Walnut Lake, guests included Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Forest Lindsey of Ferndale, Mrs. Irene Honeypett of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Holbrook, the John McPharlin and the Herschel Pruitts of Royal Oak, Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Carpenter of Birmingham and the Fred Underwoods of Wing Lake.

Invitations to the Brownie Fly-up ceremony and Girl Scout Court of Awards were made by Brownie Troop 223 last week. All Brownie and Girl Scout parents are invited. Mrs. Keith Symon taught the girls some songs and Karen Smith provided the abibbes.

Troop 413 made plans for the PT3 fair and the Court of Awards, while Troop 360 practiced artificial respiration. Karen Harper and Jewel Olanstein were hostesses.
