

St. James Names Mission Vicar

The Rev. Harold E. Towne, rector of St. James Episcopal church, announces the appointment of the Rev. Herbert Barsale to the church staff.

Mr. Barsale will serve as vicar to the St. James Mission in Berkeley.

A native of Waterbury, Conn., he attended public schools there and in 1949 was graduated from the University of Connecticut and in 1951 from the Episcopal Theological school, Cambridge, Mass.

During World War II he served with the Seabees, US Navy. Mr. Barsale is married and has three children. For the past two years he has been curate at All Saint's Episcopal church in Pontiac.

Various Activities Mark Townsite Church Plans

A 10 a.m. rehearsal on June 14 will precede Children's Day plans for the following day at Townsite Community church on Southfield road.

Sunday afternoon the chancel choir and their families will meet at the cottage of Dr. and Mrs. Harry Baker, near Ludington, for a picnic.

On June 15, an informal session will be held at 8 p.m., when parishioners, especially new members, are invited for a discussion of the policies and functions of the church. Mrs. Thomas H. Meyers will have charge of the social hour.

SUNDAY SERMON TOPICS

SUNDAY, JUNE 11

Congregational
The Rev. Edward W. Willcox, D.D., has selected "The New Birth" for the sermon topic. Sermons are held in Adams school at 11 a.m.

First Presbyterian
Regular preaching services will be held at the 8:30 church hour with a Children's Day program scheduled for 11 o'clock.

Christian Science
That we may ever look to God for protection from all evil is emphasized in the Lesson-Sermon, "God the Preserver of Man." The text is from Proverbs 20:28: "Who putteth his trust in the Lord shall be safe."

Ascension Lutheran
The Rev. Paul Shipper has taken his text for his sermon from Romans 10: verses 1 through 15. His topic will be "The Word of Faith Which We Preach."

Picnic Meeting June 16
The Mary-Martha Circle of Kirkwood Hills will hold its annual picnic meeting at 7 p.m. June 16, at the home of Mrs. Roy Brown, 3836 Beardslee in Farmington.

Baptist Church Children's Day Program Sunday

Sunday, June 14, the annual Children's Day will be observed at the First Baptist church.

The entire church school will meet at the usual time, 9:45 a.m. But at 10:30 a.m. all departments of the church school will assemble in the church sanctuary. Here, under the direction of Dr. Philip W. Lett, church school superintendent, the Children's Day program will be presented. Each department will make its contribution of story, song and Scripture. The Intermediate Choir will render an anthem.

At 11:00 a.m. the church school and congregation will have a united service of worship on a Children's Day theme.

The pastor, the Rev. Emil Kuntz, will administer the ordinance of Biblical Baptism. Participating in this impressive experience will be about a dozen members of the pastor's class in church membership, just completing a six-week training course.

The sanctuary choir under direction of Dr. Lett will provide a timely anthem, with Mrs. David Miley at the organ. The motto for the day is "The Word of Faith Which We Preach."

Ann Arbor Speaker Will Address Kirk Association

At 12:30 p.m., June 16, the Kirkwood Hills woman's association will meet for luncheon in the social hall. The program and business meeting will be held later in the parish hall.

Mrs. Orville Bond is program leader with Mrs. George J. Bond, leading the devotional period.

William Baker of the Ann Arbor Presbyterian church will deliver a message on "Future Leaders of America."

Sunday Tours of Christ Church Planned for June

Specially conducted tours of Christ Church Cranbrook will be featured each Sunday during the month of June, planned to present an opportunity for visitors to become more familiar with the system and beauty of the church building.

Andrew Williams, church rector, will conduct the tours, planned to meet at 11:15 a.m. service.

Redeemer Church Plans Anniversary Services, Picnic

The Rev. and Mrs. Emil Kuntz have returned from Denver, Colo., where they attended the 46th annual meeting of the American Baptist convention, representing the First Baptist church of Birmingham.

Mr. Kuntz was a member of the convention's nominating committee.

Among the several speakers who appeared before the group was the noted young evangelist, Billy Graham, who is scheduled to speak at the Detroit Fair grounds this fall.

Other outstanding speakers were Congressman Brooks Hayes of Mississippi and Dr. W. A. Rorer of the National Council of Churches.

Director for the First Baptist church's Vacation Church school will be Mrs. C. H. Johnson (extreme left) who is supervising the special training of the church school staff.

Working with her (left to right) is Mrs. R. M. Boltwood, junior high group superintendent; Mrs. C. L. Morse, primary superintendent; Mrs. Frank Prowse, kindergarten superintendent and Mrs. C. G. Thurston, junior department head. Special registration will be arranged for children from 5 to 15 years with study periods from 9:30 a.m. to noon, June 22-July 3. Membership is not limited to those attending the Baptist church but is open to any children of the community.

Youth Group to Hear Guest Pastor Tuesday

The Rev. Lester Case, pastor of Covenant Baptist church, Detroit, will be the guest speaker at the Youth banquet for young people of the First Baptist church at 7 p.m., June 12.

Mr. Case, who came to the Detroit church about two years ago, has a wide background in youth work and Christian education, having been a former director of Sunday school work for the State of Pennsylvania.

He will lead a program of fellowship singing, games, table stunts and devotions.

Embury Plans '53 Bible School

Embury Methodist church has completed plans for its 1953 Daily Vacation Bible school which will be conducted June 22-July 7, inclusive. Sessions will be from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., in the church.

Children from 3 to 14 years may be enrolled for classes on the opening day. The Rev. Reginald Becker will be director of the entire program.

Kindergarten groups will be directed by Mrs. Richard Sauerburt; primary by Mrs. William Lomas and juniors by Mrs. Harry Wyant.
