Barnum Nine Ends Perfect Season

Barnum Junior High school ended its 1952-53 athletic season undefeated with a baseball victory over Cranbrook.
 Coach Gibson feels this is by far the strongest athletic eighth grade he has seen at Barnum. "The boys have size, speed, and athletic ability," he said.
 In closing the season, fifty-one boys received baseball certificates as members of four squads made up of the entire baseball team. Games were played nightly at St. James Field, and once a week Barnum played a varsity game home or away.

WALNUT LAKE NEWSLETTER

The kindergarten round-up was held June 10. Mrs. Salton, the school nurse, Mrs. Payne, kindergarten teacher, and Mrs. Otis Fockler, room mother, helped enroll the children for next September. Mrs. Payne talked to the mothers about what they could expect of school; Mrs. Salton spoke about the children's health and Miss Votey about safety going to and from school.

Mrs. Reginald Smith, setting mother vice president, talked about the PTA and room mothers. Mrs. Smith, assisted by Mrs. D. R. Koskinen and Mrs. Eckerle, took charge of the children and served refreshments. Jill Morton and Virginia Irwin helped with the children and David Smith showed them film strips.

A FLAG DAY assembly was held Friday, with each class presenting part of the program. The kindergarten children had made flags, which they held up while they sang a song. Children from the first grade who participated with their flags were Wendy Nabedjian, Barbara Kipp, Diana Kadden, Katy Kirby, Louise Hampton and Marilyn Shank. Second grade children held up letters spelling "Flag Day" and recited poems about the letters. They were Rodney Brown, Larry Sundstrom, Diane Martin, Punch Simon, Frank Mott, Tommy Hugman and Nan Jones.

The third grade sang two songs. Children from the fourth and fifth grade showed flags that have flown over parts of this country in the past. Corinne Sarlund introduced Philip King, Karen Craftrey, David Sandborn, Richard Mealy, Susan Parkins and Jay Snyder, who told about these flags.

Blanton, Janet Roberts, Margaret Roberts, Judy Karnes, Sandra Sweet, Joan Smith, Marc Whims, Tom Harrison, Paul Heller, Paul Zimmerman, Lee Roberts, Philip Emrich, Eldon Muir, Billy Koch and Edward Nickel, the narrator. Susan Feeley gave a book on the Ford fiftieth anniversary to the school library. Musical numbers were presented by children taking lessons outside of school. Giving piano solos were Margaret Roberts, Lynn Roberts, Jill Morton, Virginia Irwin, Marc Kay, Gerber, Bob Kipp, Gerald Whims and Edward Nickel, Judith

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE SCHOOL NEWS
 Karnes and Sandra Sweet played a clarinet duet. Terry Unsworth and Eldon Muir gave selections on the accordion and Paul Zimmerman on the viola.
 First grade news: It is still a mystery to us how and where our pet mouse Smokey disappeared. One morning we couldn't find him and we miss him very much.
 Fifth grade: We have made pictures illustrating the United States possessions.
 Sixth grade: We have been making pictures of life in South America.
 Seventeen children and mothers were welcomed at the kindergarten Round-up on Tuesday June 9th. Refreshments were served and fun was had by all.
 Last week the first graders enjoyed a class trip to the zoo, as well as the second graders. Mothers assisted the teachers in these outings.
 On Tuesday, June 16, kindergarten will be excused for the summer.
 On Wednesday, June 17, at 12 noon, grades one through six will be excused for the summer. At 4 p.m. Field Events will begin. Grades one through six will participate. At 6 p.m. the School Picnic at a nominal laboratory fee. Applications may be made to Cranbrook Institute of Science. Each family will bring their own picnic basket.

Stane Polishing Class Given At Cranbrook
 Cutting and polishing precious stones will be taught in an 8-week course at Cranbrook Institute of Science beginning June 24.
 Under supervision of Richard Hintermeister, the evening classes, which will be limited to a small group, are open to the public at a nominal laboratory fee. Applications may be made to Cranbrook Institute of Science.
