The benefit tea given June 16 at the home of Mrs. C. E. Wilson of Broomfield Hills, in behalf of Bird's Nest camp for birds, was most successful, according to reports from Mrs. Kenneth D. MacGregor of Wing Lake, co-chairman. Funds raised will be used for additional play equipment. Among the 86 guests those from Wing Lake were Mrs. John W. Gillette, Jr., Mrs. Richard E. Garlick, Mrs. Parbury P. Schmidt, Mrs. Robert B. Knight, Mrs. James O. Wright, Mrs. Edward A. Proctor and Mrs. James Sidway.

Localities will be interested to know that Mrs. A. J. Auchterlonie of Wing Lake, road, portrait and landscape painter, had two entries in the art exhibit and tea on Tuesday of last week, sponsored by the Birmingham Society of Women Painters. The show, staged in the old schoolhouse studio on Maple road, is the eighth annual exhibit of the society, with 22 paintings on display this year. Mrs. Auchterlonie is one of several artists who paint in Florida every winter, along with Mrs. Paul Averill, Mrs. Ben Atter, Mrs. Warren Seelye and Mrs. John Gaff, all members of the Birmingham society. A few have been venturing into the contemporary field recently and some of the canvases showed evidences of this modern approach.

Miss Janice Johnson, fifth grade teacher at Wing Lake School for the past year, left last week for Muskogee, where she will be married on June 27 to Martin Moon, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Moon, Sr., of Hattiesburg. The ceremony will be performed in the Central Methodist church of Muskogee at 4 p.m. The couple will reside in Nashville, Tenn., where Moon is presently a newscaster for the Associated Press. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Johnson, of North Muskogee. She is a graduate of Smith college where she received her bachelor's degree.

Some of our neighboring Foxcrofters have been polishing up their boots and saddle techniques preparatory to vacations in the wide open spaces. Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Haines and son Kenneth of Meadoway, Foxcroft, left last weekend for a western hunt to Arizona and Utah, with such attractions as Bryce Canyon, Zion National Park and the Grand Canyon heading their itinerary. They will also tour the state of California, visiting friends in Los Angeles and San Francisco, all of which will absorb about a month. Other holidayers en route to the cactus country are Mr. and Mrs. Philip Johnson of Foxcroft, with Patricia, 11, and Susan, 7. They
