Lions Await PGA Tourney Opening

Plans for the handling of parking during the PGA tourney at the Birmingham country club are nearly completed by members of the Birmingham Lions club.

Work has been done on the large lot, under the direction of Joe Moore and Bud Tinsley, with the entire section leveled and graded.

A final work and instruction session was held yesterday, when painted stakes were set to mark parking areas. The several teams which will operate the lot were instructed in how cars will be parked and the traffic flow handled. Path helmets were distributed at this time as identification badges for workers as well as protection against the sun.

The club has been divided into 12 teams of five men each with an additional eight men on call as reserve. They will begin operation of the lot on June 20, maintaining full-day service through July 7.

It has been announced that a temporary telephone booth has been installed for the added convenience of patrons.

Takes Special Course In Autoradiography At Oak Ridge, Tenn.

Miss Esther M. Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Smith, 752 E. Lincoln, bacteriologist at Michigan State college, East Lansing, is in Oak Ridge, Tenn., where she is studying autoradiography, or the technique by which atoms "take pictures of themselves."

Miss Smith is one of 30 research workers, who are enrolled in a two-week course being conducted by the special training division of the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies.

Autoradiography is the analysis of radioactive materials through impressions made by the radiation on photographic film. This quality of radiation has been developed into an important research technique. Miss Smith plans to use autoradiography to study calcium metabolism changes as a result of virus infection.

Miss Smith holds B.S. and M.S. degrees from Michigan State college.

School Board Votes To Buy Parcel

Birmingham board of education members have decided to purchase a parcel of land roughly 275 feet by 190 feet at the southeast corner of the Franklin school property.

Inclusion of this land in the Franklin property would square off the lot now owned by the school district and protect the school from land-crawling.
