Mrs. RICHARD DEAN KIMBALL
Wears Ice Blue Bridal Gown At Saturday Night Ceremony

An ice blue gown of imported French Chantilly lace, with a skirt of nylon and tulle over shimmering satin, was chosen by Evelyn Dean Leeding for her Saturday evening, June 20 nuptial vows.
 The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Leeding of 3rd street, exchanged double-ring vows with Richard Dean Kimball before the Rev. Arnold Runkel by candlelight at the First Methodist Church.
 The groom is the son of Mrs. G. Dewey Kimball of Chester street, and the late Mr. Kimball.

THE BRIDAL GOWN was finished with a short chapel train, and the bride wore a Juliette cap edged in seed pearls, with a fingertip veil of white nylon tulle. A white orchid set in a cascade of ferns and forget-me-nots formed her bouquet.
 In pale blue nylon tulle over taffeta was Marion MacDonald, the bride's only attendant. She wore ivy and yellow daisies in her hair, and carried a cascade of yellow daisies.
 Robert Richards was the best man. The groom's cousin, Robert Sharp of Groove Pointe, John LaPine and Jack McDougal were the ushers.

A RECEPTION in the church parlors was held immediately after the ceremony. Mrs. Leeding wore pink, embroidered nylon with a matching hat, and white accessories. Mrs. Kimball chose a grey silk organza accented by roseageanium.
