MARGARET THOMPSON

Houseguests Herald Troth

Mr. and Mrs. Everett S. Lehnen of Grand Rapids spent the weekend at the Latham road home of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy S. Thompson last weekend while the engagement of their son David Bruce, to the Thompsons' daughter, Margaret Eden, was announced.

Miss Thompson is a graduate of Baldwin High School, of Stephens College, and attended Michigan State College. Her father graduated from Ottawa Hills high school, Grand Rapids, and attended Grand Rapids Junior College.

THE PROSPECTIVE GROOM is now a senior at Michigan State College and will receive his degree from MSC in December. He is affiliated with Alpha Gamma Rho. The couple are planning a September 5 wedding.

Miss Mimi Taurina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Taurina of Devonshire road, was recently graduated from Peshing high school, magna cum laude. She was valedictorian of her class, won the Arion musical award, the gold cup for the 1951 school oratorical championship, plus a gold medal for dramatic interpretive reading. Mimi plans to continue her studies at Wayne university and then teach music.

Mrs. Norris A. Host, Bedford road, recently addressed the Kiwanis club of Southfield township. Her topic was "Our European Neighbors." She based her talk on Will Rogers' saying, "I never knew a man I didn't like."

Miss Carol Schulte, who will be married to Howard Ross, Bedford road, on June 27, was feted with a luncheon and shower at the Chitwood tearoom last Saturday. Hostess of the party was Mrs. Aaron Drouillard. In the evening 30 of the young couple's friends gathered for a barbecue and songfest at the home of Howard's parents, the John Stones. The rehearsal dinner is also slated at the Stone residence on Thursday, June 25.
