

Holy Name Wins First In Playoff

Holy Name's baseball team huddled the first test of the CVO league playoffs Monday afternoon when it combined the good pitching of Terry O'Connor and Bob Holcomb with sharp eyes at the plate to best St. Ann's of Warren, 15-5 at Royal Oak Memorial park.

Holy Name gained the finals by tying St. Mary Magdalene in the local league. Their only loss during the season was to this Hazel Park team on May 21 when they dropped a 4-3 decision.

In Monday's game, O'Connor pitched the first five innings, striking out 11, walking six but allowing no hits. Holcomb finished the game.

Holy Name collected 15 hits and committed two errors in the rout. The next playoff game has not been set.

In the final game of the regular season, Holy Name defeated St. Mary's of Royal Oak 9-4 with O'Connor on the mound. Holcomb was the big gun in this game, scoring three runs on two hits.

Names Committee To Work with City

Richard Wilson, of the Wilson Drug store, was elected chairman of the Retail Merchants committee at its first regular meeting held May 28. J. W. (Bill) Torrence of the Torrence Oil company was named ex-chairman.

The group appointed a committee to work with city officials on the rubbish disposal problem in the business district. It is their opinion that through the standardization of rubbish containers and handling methods throughout the business area, a solution to the problems can be easily reached.

The Merchants are also planning a special campaign among the business places for the National PGA tournament to be held at the Birmingham country club June 29-July 7.

They will sponsor a series of poster advertisements and plan five or six distribution points for tickets.

Others serving on the committee are James Peabody, Victor Koeb, Harold Kalbfleisch, Carus Schmitt, Herbert Burr, Paul Kurth, Raymond Peck, Robert Guy, Warren Sumner and Alfred LaHelle.

Girls Win Top Class Honors

By Janet Weber

Highlighting the senior dinner in the high school's Maple room last Thursday was announcement of senior honors, headed by co-valedictorians Jocelyn Watt and Kathleen Berry.

The two girls tied in attaining top highest scholastic record in the graduating class of 250 members. Ann Borchert was named salutatorian.

"Seniors victorious" was the theme of the annual dinner. The Roman theme originated during field day by the class of '54, was carried out in the decorations and table settings while programs were scrolls printed in Latin.

Treasurer Bob Appleford introduced Howard Love, former senior advisor, who spoke to the class on the importance of remembering high school experiences. He summed up his talk by saying "You will look back with fond recollection on what you have done here."

SENIOR MOCK election awards were presented by Henry Moore and Rita Skaroen. Ross A. Wagner, principal, congratulated the class and its leaders. He referred to the song which contains the words "No man is an island." He pointed out that the influence each had upon others contributed to the success of the school.

He then presented other senior honors. Cum laude students include, besides valedictorians and salutatorian, Jim Barr, Sandra Bernot, Shirley Bever, Kendall Fowler, Janet Brown, Sylvia Chalk, Mary Fulton and Sarah Reed.

Where Living Takes On New Meaning

Beverly Hills is the location—such a wonderful section to raise a family and in the Birmingham school district. The lovely trees and large yard frame this 4 bedroom beauty that we are happy to present. The LR is large with a fireplace with french doors leading to a screened porch. Family-sized DR, breakfast room, large kitchen and lav complete the first floor plan. Two full baths upstairs and a 2 car garage make it a tremendous value at $24,000.
