Pioneer in Auto Advertising Field Buried on Tuesday

O. E. Mittelstaedt, 62, vice president of Fritzel & Co. Inc., died at his home shortly after noon on May 29, following a heart attack. Mr. Mittelstaedt was a pioneer in the automotive advertising and publishing field, starting his career with the Dodge Motor Car company in 1914. He past president and director of advertising and helped prepare the first advertising campaign for Dodge.

In the middle 20's he became account executive for George Harrison Phelps, Inc., handling Dodge-Hudson, Inc. and General Motors. In 1933 he joined the Electrograph company and was instrumental in establishing the Dodge News magazine, one of the first consumer magazines in the automotive advertising field.

HE BECAME vice president of the Prince agency in 1941 when that company succeeded to the Electrograph company. Born in Detroit in 1890, he attended public schools there and the University of Michigan. Before joining Dodge, he was associated with the Grand Trunk railway and Trucon Steel Corp.

Mr. Mittelstaedt is survived by his widow, the former Josephine Wouters; a daughter, Mrs. Robert M. McNulty; a son, Oscar E. Jr.; a sister, Mrs. Amelia Gierke and three brothers, Albert, Henry and Edward. Two grandchildren also survive.

Services, in charge of the Verheyden funeral home were from his residence at 7494 Grand River, all of Birmingham. Six grandchildren also survive.

Burial will be at 2 p. m., Friday, from the Manley Bailey Funeral home with the Rev. Arnold P. Runkel, D.D., officiating. Funeral will be in White Chapel cemetery.
