

BITS OF BIRMINGHAM

Personally, I believe that a good cook is a necessary and very talented person, the need for food, the frequency with which we eat it, the good feeling it imparts... well, every good cook ought to be appreciated more.

TWO LITTLE GIRLS with an urge to play store have turned $1.20 over to the American Red Cross through the 1953 drive chairman, DeHull Travis. The youngsters, Susan Howell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David A. Howell, 640 Lakeside, and Mara Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johnson, 680 Lakeside, operated their playstore for two days. Their complete stock of bubble gum, candy and lemonade was sold to neighborhood youngsters.

TO SEE HOW the special citizens fire hall advisory committee is progressing, its steering committee will be asked to meet with the city commission at an early date, Mayor Ralph A. Main said this week. The special committee is examining the need for additional firefighting facilities, is headed by ex-city commissioner John S. O'Gorman, Jr.

CITY PROPERTY can't be kept in good condition if abutting property owners use it to burn or dump rubbish on, City Manager D. C. Egbert emphasizes. City Commissioner James Allen believes such misuse is a nuisance, and as such is liable to penalty under city ordinance. Egbert agrees, and thinks it might be a good idea to enforce the ordinance.

THE TWO NEW STOP SIGNS which have recently been installed on W. Lincoln, between Southfield and Cranbrook, "very definitely have slowed down the speeds of motorists," says Roland J. Beck, 2190 W. Lincoln. Several weeks ago residents petitioned for the signs in an effort to curb excessive speeding.

ANOTHER SPEEDING PROBLEM exists on E. Lincoln, residents claimed this week. Especially school buses on their way to and from the garage at the east end of the street, Police Chief Ralph Moxley has promised to take this matter up with school officials.

CITY PLAN BOARD members are looking over all city-owned property with the idea of having it zoned to a specific category, rather than merely "public property", City Planning Engineer Robert Boatman revealed this week. "The board feels such zoning will give abutting property owners more definite assurance of the use of city property if it is ever decided to sell it," he explained.

Sister Kenny Chapter Elects New Trustees

By JILL ROBERTS

Special Writer for The Birmingham Eccentric

The Michigan chapter of the Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation held its annual dinner meeting and election of new trustees Thursday evening at Devon Gables, Long Lake road and Telegraph.

Presiding over the meeting were Dexter Horton of Bloomfield Hills, president of the Michigan chapter, and E. J. Rollings of Detroit, executive vice-president.

The six newly elected members of the trustee board are Arthur R. Hoffman of Detroit, vice-president of Kinsal Drug Stores; Jack B. Habel, of Habel Chevrolet Co. of Pontiac; Clara Kelly of Pleasant Ridge, Oakland County manager for Michigan Secretary of State; Mrs. Jay Runkle of Royal Oak, wife of Crowley, Hilner & Company president; Robert Forbes of Detroit, circulation and advertising manager of the Michigan CIO News; and Bruce Ovaite of Dow Chemical Co., Midland.

ANNUAL REPORTS on the various activities of the Kenny Foundation were presented by John Habel, chairman of the executive board; Dr. John Montgomery, chairman of the medical advisory board; Dr. Gordon W. Hill, chairman of the hospital committee; Donald F. Carney, secretary of the Foundation; and Dr. Ethel T. Calhoun, medical superintendent of the Sister Kenny Polio Hospital in Pontiac.

In addition to the ever present need for funds to further the work of the Kenny foundation, Dr. Calhoun also stressed in her talk before the group the urgent need of registered nurses and physical therapists, trained in the concept and treatment of polio, to augment the present hospital staff, particularly during the summer season.

Prior to the meeting, the entire board of trustees and executive personnel of the foundation were conducted through the Sister Kenny Polio Hospital, North Telegraph road, on a personal inspection tour.

a memorable event highlighted by winning a HAMILTON WATCH

It has been our greatest pleasure to present Susan Wilson her choice of a Hamilton watch for being judged winner of our Hamilton watch contest. As a member of the Birmingham High School graduating class and its 251 eligible participants in our contest we are happy to quote in full her winning statement:

1335 Latham Road

"I would like to have a Hamilton watch from Lake Jewelers because a graduation gift is one to cherish a lifetime and I know the Hamilton name symbolizes quality and dependability, plus the beauty of fine craftsmanship."
