News About GIRL SCOUTS

TROOP No. 306—BARNEUM
Cranbrook was the destination of this troop's latest field trip. Not only did the girls visit the Institute but also made a complete tour of Christ Church and also the gardens of the Booth estate nearby.

An appointment was made ahead and the girls had someone from the Institute accompany them and explain the various rooms and facilities of the Church and also show them through the gardens.

CAMP NARRIN
This is a reminder to all leaders and adults who are interested in scouting that Tuesday June 6th Open House at Camp Narrin for the seven districts in Southern Oakland County. The hours are from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Bring your lunch and coffee will be served. Tours and nature hikes have been arranged or you may just go and sit and enjoy the camp facilities. Parents who are interested are urged to pay the camp a visit at this time. For directions as to how to get there call Mrs. James Keene on Evergreen.
