JUNE JITSUS (DON'T TIE YOURSELF IN KNOTS)

- Hollyhocks and delphiniums should be dusted with SULPHUR or FERMATE or sprayed with BORDEAUX.
When cutting peony blooms LEAVE some foliage on base of stalk OR cut only a few blooms from each stalk.
Sow PORTULACA seed now in hot, exposed areas.
Still time to plant DAHLIA ROOTS.
Ideal time for planting GLADIOLI.
Keep dusting gladioli with 5% DDT (NEVDUST) until buds show color.
You can still plant in June—Shirley Poppy, Gypsophila, Bachelor Button, Gaillardia, Scabiosa, Zinnia and others.
Order BUCKWHEAT HULLS now and have them when you need them—later this month.
Flowers, especially roses, keep best if harvested late in afternoon or evening.
Hollyhock blooms may be improved by thinning buds especially at tip.
Dust corn when it is a foot high with DDT.
Train tomatoes with STAKES for earlier fruit.
Prune deutzias, spiraea, viburnum, and wiegela as soon as blooming season is over.
It is not too late to shape up foundation planting evergreens for symmetry.
Birch tree miners and other leaf chewing insects should be sprayed with BLACK-LEAF-40 plus soap or with 48% CHLORDANE.

Power of Prayer Can Help World, Lecturer Avers

"Because true prayer is effective, every Christian should pray daily for solution of world problems," Harold Molter of Chicago told a local audience Friday evening. On a nationwide tour, the member of the Christian Science lecturers board, Molter spoke here under the auspices of the "First Church of Christ, Scientist." "Christian Science maintains, on the authority of the Bible," he said, "that the only way to the salvation of the world from all ills is through the power of unselfish thoughts—through improving and spiritualizing our understanding of God and man." By way of specific illustration, he asked his audience, "What, alone, can destroy the hatred, selfishness, bitterness, and resentment so widespread in the world today?" "The recognition of God as Love brings us divine Love into our lives, to accomplish what, to human sense, seems impossible. It alone lays down the path of peace, and all discords in the world." "If today all men stopped hating, violence would be ended in all the promise of peace and good will of our relationships," he concluded.

which the angels sang of at the birth of Jesus would be fulfilled. Wars would cease and peace reign throughout the earth. "The spiritual power, or Christ," he went on, "is ever present and available to each one of us. It is the gift of God. It is inseparable from us." "ALL WE have to do is to acknowledge this power and let it govern our thoughts and acts. If we do this, it will heal our physical, moral and mental, and we find heaven or spiritual harmony, hope and now." He emphasized, however, that Christian Science involves more than acquiring a systematic understanding of God and man. Along with this teaching comes the demand to put it into daily practice for the redemption of the individual as well as for all mankind.

In explaining the Christian Science standpoint with regard to trust in God, Mr. Molter said "The God who is Love always acts according to unerring, divine law and is wise, unchanging and unchanging." "The practical, healing effect of prayerful reliance upon divine law was described by the lecturer in these terms: "SINCEREMAN is governed by the laws of Truth, he can never be subject to chance or change, to uncertainty or indecision, to misadventure or misunderstanding, to distrust, frustration, spontaneity and disintegration or deterioration.
