Donors to Mail Checks;
Goal Still Short $2,261

Latest reports show the Community House Call Bell $2,261 short of its $4000 goal for 1953.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wiegold and Lyman Craig, Jr., released these figures Monday when they said committee workers hoped to wind up the current campaign this week.

Mrs. Carlton H. Isley, executive director of the House, said contributions to date are pouring in and indicate that the goal may be reached.

"There are quite a few persons who promised checks which have not yet arrived," she said. "It would be great if they would mail these contributions to us immediately. It is important to our planning to know exactly what the final figure will be, and of

For Test Work

LITTLE CREEK, Va.—Ensign R. K. Houghton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hal H. Houghton of Little Creek, is one of 23 aviators commissioned by the task force commander for his participation in operations against the test work at the Marshall Islands.

Houghton is attached to the USS Oak Hill, an Atlantic Fleet ammunition ship which furnished small craft for various units and also acted as a harbor control vessel during the operation.

The tests were the joint efforts of the Army, Navy, Air Force and Atomic Energy Commission.

The Oak Hill returned here yesterday after serving in the Atlantic Fleet Amphibious Force.
