Village PTA Ends Current Season

The final meeting of the year was held by the Bloomfield Village PTA last Monday evening, May 4, at Quanton school. Following a brief business meeting, new officers were elected and a movie "Priceless Heritage" was shown. Officers for 1953-54 are Mrs. Carl Abbot, president; Mrs. Jesse Eakin, member vice president; Robert Eggert, father vice president; and Mrs. Margaret Weinstein, teacher, vice president. Also, Austin Browne, treasurer; Mrs. Howard Mandel, corresponding secretary; Mrs. E. O. Bous, recording secretary and Mrs. A. E. Purman, historian.

Holy Name School PTA Installs New Officers

William Knuff was elected and installed president of the coming year of the Holy Name School PTA at a meeting held last Tuesday. He will take office in September. Other newly elected officers are Mrs. James R. Holcomb, vice-president; Roger J. Blainford, father vice president; Mrs. Gilbert C. Goode, Jr., secretary; and Edward J. Fisher, treasurer. Part of the second grade class, under the guidance of Sister Rozalia, presented a reading exhibition at the PTA meeting. Miss Rita Simons, reading expert for Parochial schools of the Arch Diocese, explained the procedure before Sister Rozalia demonstrated with the children.

Lathrup Village News

By BETTY DWORK Southfield 3362

Due to the use of Lathrup school as a voting place on their regular meeting day, the Lathrup PTA has postponed the May meeting to Tuesday, May 19. The new board announced that Richard N. Coger will be the president of the association for the coming year due to the resignation of Mrs. B. L. Archer, Jr. In accordance with the by-laws, Coger was appointed by the incoming board. The May 19 meeting will wind up the year for the PTA. Open house will be held in the auditorium, with a book sale and home talent program. $17.50 is the regular spring open-house, sponsored by teachers, will feature a student work display. After a short business meeting at 8 will include installation of the new officers. The program committee has planned a home talent presentation. The Lathrup Players, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Richard Coger, will make their debut with a play entitled "Radio Time" and the character of the PTA Mother Singers, under the direction of Mrs. Wendell Holmes, will present a group of numbers.

Bloomfield Hills PTO Elects Board Members

New members were elected to the PTO board of Bloomfield Hills at a meeting held recently at Vaughan school. Members elected to serve for two years are Dr. and Mrs. Carl Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Huffman and Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Jesson. Four school board candidates were guest speakers at the meeting. They presented their ideas and qualifications concerning the June 9 election. Dean Draper of Bloomfield Hills and Merrill Bates of Birmingham Township have been nominated to serve for a one year term. Running for a three year term are David Lee and Fred Isaacson both of Bloomfield Hills.
