

Suburban Seen

By KAY REED

MRS. MURPHY had quintuplets recently. And the father was anonymous. So Mrs. Murphy's local friends leaped into the gap and hosted a shower. This one was a bit different than most baby showers coming to the attention of this department: in return for bringing a gift, guests were given one of the offspring. We had the honor of Mrs. M. thanking her benefactors for the dollop of cake and rubber mice meant to take her mind off her bereavement. Mrs. Murphy is a tabby.

WE THOUGHT we had seen everything in the birthday cake line, but the DAC has added a new twist: miniature "roman candles" sparkle all the Fourth of July for the dazzled recipients. Now if we only knew how they lit them without losing a hand.

MARIE BERNIER will be her twin sister's maid of honor when Margaret Lucille Bernier and Benniah A. Howay stand at the altar of the Redeemer Lutheran Church at eight o'clock Friday evening, June 5, and repeat their vows by candlelight. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. William Bernier of Webster avenue, and the late Mr. Bernier. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Howay of Royal Oak are the prospective groom's parents.

Other bridesmaids will be Evelyn Bernier, Phyllis Howay and Mrs. Norton Behm. Young Susan Howay, the groom-to-be's niece, will perform the duties of flower girl. His cousin, Ed Howay, will be the best man. Ushers will include Gordon Bernier, Donald Howay and William Scott.

Those who have already entertained for Margaret are her aunt and cousin, Mrs. George Tefft and Mrs. James Hodges. Anna Winters hosted a miscellaneous shower in her Cole avenue home, and Mrs. Norton Behm and Marie Bernier entertained at a personal shower. Mrs. John Booth was an April 30 hostess, and Mrs. Carl Hirsom, another aunt of the bride-elect, is planning a May 24 party shower at her Trenton home.

NO SITTING ON THE BEACH for the Julian Wilsons of Waddington road, Bloomfield Village, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hoover of Auburn drive. The two couples left Friday, May 8, to go to BEAVER HUNTING in northern Ontario. They also plan to get in some fishing at the Bear Island, Lake Tamagami headquarters. Indian guides will be available, and Mrs. Wilson promises to notify us if they come back with the makings of a bear rug.

JUNE 13 WEDDING bells will ring for Corinne Collier and Thomas H. Bonino. The couple will exchange vows at West Lawn Methodist Church at 1 o'clock. Nancy Passow of Detroit will be maid of honor, and Nancy Kujath of Illinois will be bridesmaid. Gene Bonino will serve his brother as best man. Corinne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Don Collier of Ramsgate road, Lathrup Village, and Thomas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bonino of Dearborn.

The bride-elect was entertained at a miscellaneous shower by Mrs. C. H. Louden and Mrs. William Spittle of Dearborn. Other hostesses have been Mrs. Randal S. Wertheft and Mrs. Orville Baker.

Two parties have been scheduled for May 16. Nancy Passow will entertain with a linen shower, and Mrs. Bonino, mother of the groom, will be hostess at a tea at Dearborn Inn.

A TRIPLE HEADER of a birthday party was given May 9 by Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Bratton who entertained at cocktails in their home on Woodclaw court. Guests of honor included Mr. B., as well as Gil Winn and Horace Holmes. In addition to the Winns and the Holmes, on hand were Mr. and Mrs. Charles White, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Donaldson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kolb.

ADD HOUSEGUESTS: Air Corps private Wayne Weeks on leave from Bolling Field spent week with the Bert Uebels of Orchard Ridge road.

Marjorie Smith Is Bride Of Frederick Hendrick, Jr.

Sea Island, Ga., was the destination of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Douglas Hendrick, Jr., after their Saturday afternoon nuptials in the First Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Glen Harris was on the altar. The bride, the former Marjorie Way Smith, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice F. Smith of Dorstone Place. Her white Chantilly lace gown fell over silk tulle and was styled with a bateau neckline edged with appliques of red pearls and sequins. Inserts of pleated tulle accented the full bodice skirt which ended in sweeping train. A small tap of beirloom Rosepointe lace from her wedding cap of the groom's nocker held a fingertip veil of tulle with illusion.

The bride carried a white orchid surrounded by white butterfly-embroidered and trailing ivy.

VIRGINIA McCHESNEY was the maid of honor. Completing the bridal procession were Mrs. Charles Ramadell, Mrs. James Maunders and Mrs. Raymond Vesper.

All wore ballerina gowns with bouffant skirts in shades of deep Cautillon blue and fitted bodices of white lace. Bunches of ivy with shattered carnation formed their headpieces, and the bridesmaids carried colonial bouquets of pink carnations set in trailing ivy, with Miss McChesney's arrangement composed of maroon carnations.

THE GROOM, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Douglas Hendrick of Pilgrim road, has his cousin, Dr. E. Bruce Hendrick of Boston, Mass., for his best man.

Seating the guests were Keith Hendrick of Toronto, Ont., Maurice F. Smith, Jr., Holt Ackerman, Jerry Hans and Donald Maunders. For her daughter's nuptials, Mrs. Smith chose a floor-length navy chiffon gown to wear with matching accessories and a hat of champagne tulle studded with rainstones.

Mrs. Hendrick wore a floor-length gown of mist grey net with lace appliqued later. Her accessories were grey and she wore a flowered cat hat.

ORCHARD LAKE Country Club was the scene of a reception following the four to follow in the afternoon ceremony. When the couple left for the Clarendon, Sea Island, the bride was wearing a powder blue suit with navy accessories, and an orchid from her corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendrick will make their home at the Colonial Court Terraces after May 25.

Garden Pilgrimages Hope to Catch Spring in Full Bloom

Spring will be a little late this year—and a number of local gardeners are delighted. The Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills area is the last tour to be scheduled by the Garden Centre Pilgrimages and it would seem that the June 13-14 dates assigned will catch both spring and early summer foliage in full bloom.

The tours, held annually to raise funds for the Detroit Garden Center on Belle Isle, begin this week-end, May 16-17, in Grosse Pointe. Listed are the gardens of the Ray M. Whytes, Owen R. Skeltons, Edwin S. Barbour, Gerald W. Chambedins, Raymond H. Berzys, Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. Pratt, Dr. and Mrs. Ivo D. Harris and Mrs. Horace E. Dudge.

Tour II which will encompass

Wyandotte, Trenton and Grosse Ile, is slated for May 23-24. Detroit and Farmington gardens on the tour will be open June 6-7.

FOURTEEN GARDENS will be on display locally June 13-14. Pilgrimage hosts will include Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cohen of Orchard Ridge road, Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Colbert of Martell drive, Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Norford of Lage Pine road and Mrs. Carl Flinterman of Lowell court, all of Bloomfield Hills.

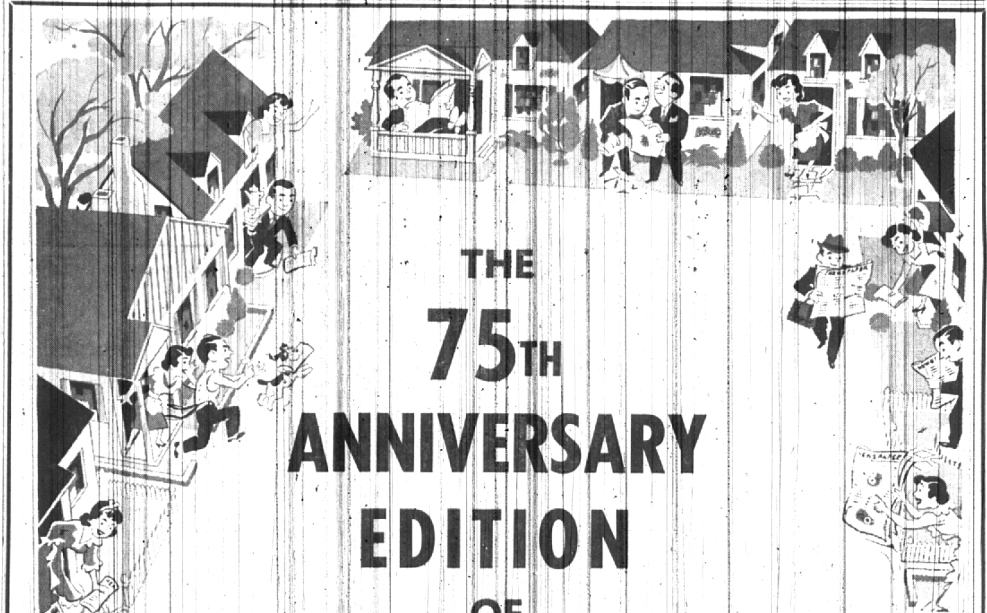

Birmingham gardens to be on display include those of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Strigley of Fairfax road, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. P. Johns of Tooting Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Harman, Mr. and Mrs. Paul N. Averill, Mr. and Mrs. John Oster and Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Andree, all of Clangary Creek and Mr. and Mrs. Senon Kaudsen of Bingham lane.
