WALNUT LAKE NEWS

By LOUISE BERTS
MAY 14-6-3743

Officers who will guide the Walnut Lake Women's club for the next year were installed at the May 6 meeting with Mrs. George Osterbeck, the club's first president, officiating. Mrs. Mastin Wade is the new president; Mrs. Mason Noble, vice president; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Roland Walton and Mrs. Mahli Sutton; Mrs. John A. Smith, corresponding secretary; membership chairman, Mrs. Harry Board. Incoming and outgoing officers were given corsages, and a past-president's pin was presented to Mrs. Parker Rockwell, retiring. In the business meeting, annual reports from the president and committee chairmen were given. The members voted to incorporate the club. Mrs. Robert Annan and Mrs. R. C. Barker were appointed as co-chairmen of the banquet, with the executive board as an advisory committee.

Mrs. Thomas Snyder was chairman of the committee of the evening. Other members were Mrs. Lester Johns, Mrs. William Noth, Mrs. Carl Ribolin, Mrs. Edward Griggs and Mrs. Frank Sweet.

The new executive board of the Women's club and the retiring president, Mrs. Rockwell, were entertained at a breakfast on May 7 by Mrs. Mason Noble at the Merle Norman beauty salon. Programs for next year were discussed.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Irwin of Westmore road announced the birth of a son, Donald Andrew, on May 5 in Grace hospital, Detroit. The Irwins have one daughter, Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nightingale of Comfort Drive returned last week from a 15-day vacation in Mexico. They flew to Mexico City, and from there made several shorter trips by car to points of interest.

Regal Theme Will Be Reflected In May 15th Coronation Ball

Very much in keeping with sentiment here and abroad, the twenty-fifth annual May party for the dancing classes of Florence Sepholfield Young will be "The Coronation Ball."

The festivities are scheduled to get underway at eight o'clock Friday evening, May 15, in the Crystal ballroom of the Masonic Temple. Presiding will be Joanne Strait and Edgar A. Gault III, "king and queen" of the evening.

William Lutz, of Westmore road, left Detroit May 6 on a freighter which will take him through the St. Lawrence river and then to Europe. Sent as the representative of the Detroit newspaper will report daily on his observations.

The Walnut Lake men's bowling league held their annual spring banquet on Tuesday, May 5, at Rosemond Hills Inn.

Den 5 Cub Scouts had a treasure hunt last Thursday. Bobby Sutton, keeper of the league's records, Don Brown brought the nibs. Den 3 Cub made Mother's Day cut-squares and Den 2 painted plant holders. Ricky Harlund was host. Dens 1 and 4 met at the home of Mrs. John Palmer in a baseball. Freddy Hamilton brought the nibs.

Stuffed animals and birds interested the Cubs of Den 1 when their den mother, Mrs. Ed Sintz, took them to the Children's Museum in Detroit on Saturday, May 2.

Marjorie Alaim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Alaim of Inkster road, celebrated her fifth birthday on Saturday, May 2, with a party planned by her brother, Jimmy. Guests were Judy Kirby, Marilyn Shank, Pamela Pottelger and Kim Robert.

Thursday night guests of the T. V. Kirby of Inkster road were Mrs. Kirby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sado, who have just returned from six months in California and Arizona.

Another family stopping briefly at Walnut Lake were the Andy Craters, who spent a few days with their daughter and family, the Don Luthers of Deering road. Following their winter in Florida, the Luthers will spend the summer at Orango Lake.

More Walnut Lake residents returning from Florida are Mr. and Mrs. Amos Bertram, who spent the winter in Miami and Sarasota, and Dan Sherman of Langham drive.

The William Unsworths had as their guest last week Mrs. Unsworth's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Wood of Hamilton, Ont. Early in June Mrs. Wood will leave for England, and from there spend three months visiting relatives.

Mrs. William Maddren of Deering road, spent Mother's Day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fitch at Howell. On Tuesday Kaye Maddren celebrated her 12th birthday with a family dinner.

Starting at the home of their leader, Mrs. Robert Smith, some of the Troop 125 Brownies had a trail last week, while the rest of the Brownies followed. The trail led to the home of Mrs. Robert Eason, where the girls roasted marshmallows to make "cinnamon poppers." Mrs. Reginald Smith also hosted the Brownies.

First Scout Troop 413 learned to build fires last week and then roasted marshmallows. They also played basketball. Jeanne Matt brought the pibbles.

Troop 360 practiced skills they will need for camping. Virginia Irwin was hostess.

Mrs. John Gibson, Mrs. William Maddren and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kirbert were chaperones when Junior Big met at the school Friday night. At the request of the children, Miss Patricia Jeanne supervised social dancing. The program also included a movie of England and Belgium.

CHATHAM'S LIGHTWEIGHT BLANKETS

Springfield's ALL WOOL FOREVER FITTED blanket

Revolutionary custom-tailored corners conform to the contour of your mattress for perfect fit... perfect comfort. Springfield's Forever Fitted Blanket stays in place all night. Tearing and fraying can't disturb it.

It's a work-saver, too. Springfield's Forever Fitted Blanket practically makes the bed for you. Corners fit close to the mattress, holding sheets in place. All you have to do is smooth the surface and your bed is made. Stretched, seams—reinforced and bound with satin—are kind to your linens. Wash-drops at angles or tips.

Fitted corners keep cold air out... luxurious, sprightly nap keeps body warm at night. Made of fine New Zealand wools, Springfield's Forever Fitted Blankets come in single or double bed sizes.

COLORS: Cardinal Red, Bay Blue, Anilins Rose, Seaford, Cobalt Gold, Anilins Pink and Tinted White.

A tailor-made blanket is practical only if it will fit perfectly after it's washed. Revolutionary comfort and convenience are possible only because Springfield's exclusive "Sizest" feature means perfect fit... always "Sizest" means washable. Shrinkage control is permanent... and so stretch drying is necessary. Light brushing fills up deep nap, restoring the maturing oil cells that create real all-wool warmth.
