

Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Roy T. Bramson, of Long Pine road, were hosts at a dinner party they gave Friday night of last week at the D. C. Club, honoring Mr. and Mrs. William T. Utley, 848 N. Bates street. Guests included 24 old friends of the Utleys. Mr. and Mrs. Utley recently completed a new home at Post Overlook, near Glen Lake, in Leeleau county. Following the dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Bramson showed some three-dimensional pictures they took on a trip to Africa a year ago.

BIRTHS

A son, Gary Frederick, was born April 26 to MR. AND MRS. FREDERICK A. STEWART of Sheffield road. Mrs. Stewart is the former Catherine Lett of Detroit.

A daughter was born May 15 to MR. AND MRS. ROY H. WYSON of Pittsburgh, Pa. Mrs. Nelson is the former Janet Walker of Birmingham.

A daughter, Margaret Louise, was born April 29 to MR. AND MRS. FRED HENKE of Milan. Mrs. Henke is the former Margaret Newell of Birmingham.

Have You Met?

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Powers and his mother, Mrs. Tacy Wheatley of the Powers and Mrs. Whitney moved to Birchwood road from Ulica in February. Mr. Powers is employed by the Wesson Tool Co. in Female. They attend Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church, and both enjoy bowling.

Want ads cannot be accepted after 5 p.m. each Tuesday.

BIRMINGHAM FRUIT CO.
124 Midwest
N. Woodward 4-0730
PREMIER COFFEE
89c lb.
FREE DELIVERY
Free Parking at Rear of Store

Certified Cold and Dependable

FUR STORAGE

BE SMART
don't settle for a substitute — store YOUR FURS with your local furrier because only a furrier knows how to take care of your precious furs properly.

CLEANING STORAGE REMODELING

100% Insured Coverage
1030 South Woodward Ave.
Phone MI 4-2930

Dimas Furs
227 S. WOODWARD AVE.
BIRMINGHAM, MICH.

The blue-ribbon blue in a thoroughbred shoe

FLORSHEIM

Blue

Well-dressed men are proving that blue in shoes is smart—and in Florsheim Shoes even smarter! Florsheim Blue is richer, deeper—adds an accent of that "extra something" to any outfit you wear—along with the finer fit and longer wear that Florsheim Shoes are so famous for.

Also in other color combinations

WILLIAMS BOOT SHOP
115 West Maple MI 4-7344

Lathrup Village News
By BETTY DWOREK Southfield 3352

On Thursday evening, June 1, the Detroit School Board's Chorus will present a concert at the Townsite Community Church 114 1/2 mile road at Southfield. The chorus, composed of 35 men, all members of the Detroit school system. The concert is being sponsored by the choir of the Townsite Community church and the proceeds will go toward the purchase of an echo organ for the church. The concert begins at 8:30 p.m. and the donation is $1.00. Refreshments will be served in Fellowship hall following the concert.

"Our Town" will be presented by the students at Southfield high school on May 22 and 23 at 8:30 p.m. in the new auditorium. The play, written by Thornton Wilder is a Pulitzer prize winner. James Shippes, will be the director. The girls in the play will be double cast throughout the two nights. The boys maintain the part. Students portraying the characters are stage manager, John Osborn; Gully, Joan Thomas and Shirley Noden; George, Don Koppik; Mrs. Gibbs, Lee Cobb and John Detmer; Dr. G. I. B. Romie Charles; Mrs. Webb, Nova Peterson and Ellen Schriber; Mr. Webb, Ken Barber.

MRS. THOMAS H. HEWLETT (right) is pictured welcoming visitors at her Hawthorne road home. They are, from the right, Mrs. Walter P. Hickey, assistant actress; Mrs. Mark H. Duffield, state field committee woman and local board member; and Mrs. William L. Simpson, local board member. Mrs. Hewlett is also among the temporary homes in the Franklin, Edinfield Hills and Birmingham area opened for tour recently. The tours were sponsored by the Oakland County chapter for Planned Parenthood. The homes were chosen for outstanding sites, design, construction and furnishings.

With the COLLEGIANS

Patrieta Richter, daughter of Mr. Duke University senior, John E. and Mrs. W. Theodora Richter of Grandfield, has been elected to leadership position of the Alpha Lambda organization at Albion College. She is a sophomore, is majoring in Spanish.

George Landino, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Landino of South Street, was recently elected historian of Alpha Beta Sigma fraternity at Central Michigan college. George is a sophomore at the college.

Thomas J. McKenna, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McKenna of DeShane drive, and John Wood III, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wood III of Sheridan drive, who included a list of honor students who attended Wayne university, were elected to the annual honors convocation. The Women's Association at students were congratulated on their achievements by Dr. Clarke, head of the Young Republic club, and Mr. Hillberry, acting president of the Young Republic club.

Receiving her bachelor of arts degree from Smith College, Northampton, Mass., on June 5 will be W. Marie Keenick, Jeanne Carolyn Hawley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kinley H. Hawley, and Mary M. American studies major, was vice president of the Young Republic club, head of Special Events of the Young Republic club, and a member of the Young Republic club. She was on her team in the college song competition and in the college song competition. She is a member of the Young Republic club.

PTA Officers Installed At Walnut Lake School

In a simple ceremony under the Parent-Teachers' banner, Edson Stevens, retiring president of the Walnut Lake PTA, installed the new officers at the last PTA meeting of the school year on May 11. Those taking office were John N. Sabedon, president; Keith S. Hoberts, vice president; Mrs. O. S. Koskunen, member vice president; Miss Nola Bradley, teacher vice president; Mrs. Otis Fockler, secretary; Roland Walton, treasurer and Mrs. Robert Myers, historian.

Reports were given on plans for a Red Cross blood bank collection in this area in the fall, the proposed driver-training program in the high school and the success of the Girl Scout cookie sale.

"This Amazing America," a sound film made by the Greyhound Bus Co., and the Ford Motor Co. film, "Portrait of a City," were shown. Refreshments were served by the third grade room mothers.

Have You Met . . .

The new arrivals at 1495 Dacchester road? Moving from Huntington Woods on May 3 were Mr. and Mrs. William H. Mullen, Jr., and their two daughters, Christine, 6, and Amy, 3 years-old. Mullen is president of the Industrial Fuel Sales Company. He is a member of the Detroit East Club and Meadowbrook Country Club.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, birthday parties are all new—all the society editor about them.

EXTRA VALUE!

7.95

the thong sandal by Joyce of California

Privious little sandals . . . as bare as possible, for cool comfort, composed merely of cushioned sole and straps . . . in grey, purple, pink or straw hat kid. You'd really expect them to be priced much higher . . . they're such beauties, so finely made by Joyce.

SHOE SALON STREET LEVEL

Jacobson's
BIRMINGHAM

PARKING AREA FOR YOUR SHOPPING CONVENIENCE

TOM BOY SUIT STORY: TOLD IN TWO PARTS

Junior Age authors these two-piece sets that lead a happy summer life together and pair-off with other separates, too . . . the sleeveless shirts with shirt tails that tuck in or hang straight, and the perfect-fitting tailored shorts. A Navy, red or black with white set, with a vivacious "little boy" charm. Sizes 7 to 15. 8.95

B. Navy, brown or black broadcloth shirt striped with white and white pique shorts. Sizes 7 to 15. 10.95

Jacobson's
BIRMINGHAM

SPORTSWEAR STREET LEVEL