MAY MAGIC

1. Peonies require plenty of water to fill out the buds. Use a little COMMERCIAL FERTILIZER.
2. To make big peony blooms, pick off the side buds when they are small, leaving the terminal bud on each stalk.
3. Lupines have lice! Spray with ROTENONE or PYRETHRUM. Spray on the ground also.
4. Divide shasta daisies now.
5. Sow ANNUAL SEEDS now.
6. As soon as hollyhocks start to grow, spray or dust with FERMATE.
7. If you like ASPARAGUS, plant the roots now.
8. Ditto for POTATOES (only you plant eyes).
9. Now that danger of frost is past you can sow ornamental GOURDS.
10. DON'T thin, cultivate or harvest cucumbers while they are wet. It spreads disease.
11. Same for beans.

Plum Hollow Told Fill Operations Have Been Denied

Appliance from a large delegation of the Southfield Citizens League greeted the township board's decision last week to deny the Plum Hollow golf club its proposed fill operation.

Officials of the citizen's group pointed out the nuisance of numerous large trucks daily using the road not built for such traffic, residents and insects which would be attracted by the refuse and the smell and smoke to be expected from the burning.

They said they could not see why they should be subjected to health hazards and unpleasantness in order to permit the club to improve its own property.

SUPERVISOR William Roeser read a letter from the Oakland County health department tending to show that none of the expected objections would materialize.

The letter said the rubbish would be compressed and dirt covered with the use of two 22-ton bulldozers and there would be no burning.

Board members, however, expressed the opinion that to permit the club to use this method would set a precedent.
