MRS. FRANK H. STEVENS

Bermuda Honeymoon Follows Stevens-Ollesheimer Vows

Catherine P. Ollesheimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis T. Ollesheimer of Baldwin Avenue, and Frank H. Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Stevens of Jackson Road, repeated their vows in Christ Church Cathedral Saturday, May 16, at 2:30 p.m. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harold Turner.

The white length bridal gown was fashioned with a lace bodice, three-quarter length sleeves and a full pleated skirt with a lace overlay. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a blue cap made from her grandmother's wedding gown. Her flowers were a nosegay of fleur-de-lis and she carried a lace handkerchief which had been carried by her great grandmother, grandmother and great aunt at their weddings.

MRS. ROBERT KITTLE WELL of Baltimore, Md., was maid of honor. She wore a white gown and carried a nosegay of lavender violets.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles E. Stevens of Toledo, Ohio, and Mrs. Donald T. Ollesheimer of Huntington Woods. They wore gowns like that of the maid of honor and carried similar bouquets.

Dr. Charles T. Stevens of Toledo, Ohio, served as best man. Seating the guests were Richard Shinn Jackson, William James Jackson and Donald Ollesheimer of Huntington Woods.

FOR HER DAUGHTER'S WEDDING, Mrs. Ollesheimer chose a champagne-colored ensemble with a cascade of lace and tulle. She wore a cascade of lavender orchids.

Mrs. Stevens, mother of the groom, was dressed in Dixie blue and wore pale pink accessories. Her flowers were pink orchids.

The bride's parents entertained with a reception at their home immediately following the ceremony.

FOR A WEDDING TRIP TO

BERMUDA, Mrs. Stevens wore a navy blue and white suit with navy accessories. She carried a red and white checked, three-quarter length coat. They will return to make their home on E. Maple road.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Frank Lowry from California, Mr. and Mrs. William Belcher and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weir of Chicago, Ill.

The end of season banquet for the six teams of the Varsity Bowling League was held last Wednesday evening at the Northwood bridge road and Mrs. Haragay J. Robinson of Bloomfield Hills, both members of the league, presided over the arrangements. Mrs. John Kelley of Semmes road, Beverly Hills is the captain of the winning team which will enter the Champion of Champions tournament to be held soon. The team's sponsor is the G. H. Tennant company of Detroit. Each of the five members received a bronze statuette.

The banquet table was decorated with bowling balls and a clock, linked by Mrs. Avon Robinson, and decorated with a festive bowling alley by Mrs. Harley Robinson. Casino Bleau, of Detroit, who looked over 600 received a medal for her feat.

Mrs. William Young of Birmingham, Mrs. Edward Moses and Mrs. Clarence Dwyer, Lathrup Township, and Mrs. Milton Gray, Mrs. Frank Novak, Mrs. Arthur McDaniel, Mrs. Roy Bolam, Jr., Mrs. William Beale, Mrs. William Paterson and Mrs. Lucy Pobruck of Beverly Hills attended the party. Mrs. Hans Dietz of Northbridge road, and Mrs. Vern Wilford of Semmes road, former members of the league were also present.

Sunday afternoon 1,200 students, grades one through eight, at the Shrine of the Little Flower presented an outdoor program for parents and friends. The program, which was directed by Virginia and Frances Boren, of the Hope Sisters dancing school. Royal Oak depicted the history of the dance in America from the time of the Indians to the present day. Groups of students participating in historical numbers appeared completely costumed. Some students made up singing groups while others did choral speaking.

On Saturday, Beverly Elliott, daughter of the Gynsel Elliotts of Tonawanda avenue, celebrated her seventh birthday with a noon time wicker roast in the yard. Toasting winners were Bobby Grubbs, Jimmy Jule, Jean and Ellen Ryder, Billy Mottel, Dawn Robinson and Polly Stagg. Later in the afternoon the children played games.

Tuesday evening Mrs. Claude Francken held a shower and blue shower in her home on Cooper avenue. She was assisted by Mrs. Robert H. Kozma. Guest of honor was Mrs. Yoshio Matsumoto who also lives on Cooper avenue. Neighbors who attended the party were Mrs. W. J. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Ross T. Leonard, Mrs. Nobuko Angeles, Mrs. Edward Matsumoto, a Missman Satow, Mrs. E. Mori, Mrs. Walter Weiss and Mrs. Charles Kinkade.

The Wilbur Schrambers of Trarford road spent a recent weekend at their cottage near Ft. San Jacinto.
