WHIRLIGIGS
Slice dry or semi-dry sausage very thinly. Using a sharp knife, make four cuts in each slice from outer edge to within an inch of the center. This will result in four equal portions. Stick a toothpick through the center of the slice of meat. Place a corner from each quarter on the end of the toothpick and hold in place with a small onion or pimiento olive.

HOT CHIPS
Slice turmeric very thinly. Top each slice with a 1 1/2-inch square of sliced American process cheese. Broil two to three minutes, or until cheese is melted. Serve warm.
