Mr. and Mrs. Philip Detwiler, Kirkshire road, announce the birth of their fourth child, a daughter, on May 20. The new baby's name will be decided on after a family conference with the three other Detwiler children, Jan, Margy and Buffy.

Virginia Conover, June bride-elect and daughter of the Edmond W. Conovers of Bedford road, was honored with a kitchen shower and luncheon on May 18. Mrs. Harold Sander entertained for Virginia in her Devonshire road home assisted by co-hostesses, Mrs. William Tighe and Miss Mary Tighe.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris A. Heat entertained Jan Plien and Olav Arne Overan of Oslo, Norway, at dinner on May 21, in their Bedford road home. These steel industrialists were referred through the Security Commission and the Red Cross Overseas League and are studying our sub-contracting methods. Plien represents big business and Overan represents small businesses. They are here to study and observe our methods and will make a full report to the Norwegian government after completion of their tour of Hartford, Conn.; Boston, Mass.; Buffalo, N. Y.; Detroit, Pa.; Illinois; Chicago, Ill. and Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. E. J. Keeson opened her Sunnyslope road home to members of St. Christopher's Guild on Tuesday evening. Guild activities were tabled for the summer. The first project will be a bridge luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gilmore entertained at dinner and cards in their Waltham road home last Saturday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Plamson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Young and Dr. and Mrs. William McIntyre.

Mrs. Paul A. Switzer has returned to her Devonshire road home after a trip east. She spent ten days visiting her sister in Westchester county.

On Wednesday, May 20, Mrs. Frank Johnson of Bedford road, entertained at luncheon and an afternoon of painting for members of her china painting class. Attending were Yl Stone, Virginia Ross, Bink Faulkner and Kathleen Madonna.

Mr. Charles Stewart, Huntington Woods, entertained the following Beverly Hills ladies at dessert and an afternoon of bridge on Thursday, Mrs. Arthur DeRosier, Mrs. John Madonna, Mrs. John Stone, Mrs. William Gilmore, Mrs. Frank Johnson, and Mrs. Henry Jones.

Beverly Hills ladies who were among the 25 attending the Birmingham Ladies Bowling league banquet at Rosemond Hills Inn recently included Eleanor Hogsten, Eleanor Kray, and Lili Racine, who were entertained by Jane Adams prior to the dinner.

Delores LaRose, club-mother of Den 10, is planning to end the group's activities for the season with a tour through the Panny Farmer candy company's plant.

Violet Stepa, leader, and Hilda Custance, co-leader Brownie troop No. 324, planned two picnics for their troop. On Thursday they had an outing at Springdale Park. The following Monday there was another picnic in the School's Bedford road garden. All 18 Brownies received their Girl Scout pins and Flip-up pins.

Jack Whelan entertained a mixed group last Sunday honoring Howard Ross with a bar shower. Howard will be married to Carol Schulte on June 25.

Robbie Resmond, Hillcrest road, celebrated his eighth birthday on Wednesday, May 20. Celebrating was limited to a family party as brother Timmy had the measles.
