Bates Street Home Awaits Couple Married in South

Whitman Chapel on the Scarritt College, Nashville, Tenn., campus was chosen by Betty St. Tasse and Bailey Everette Thompson Jr. for their April 25 wedding. The bride, daughter of Dr. John Morgan Tasse and the late Mrs. Tasse, and the groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Everette Thompson of Farmington, repeated their vows before the Rev. T. Wilford Mayhew, assisted by the Rev. John Wilfred Greenwood of Port Huron.

THE BRIDE wore Chantilly lace over panderlight satin, styled with a maddled bodice. Elizabethan collar and long fitted sleeves ending in points over the hands. A voluminous skirt fell from soft pleats at the elongated waistline, forming a cathedral train.

The bride's full length veil of imported illusion was caught by a half-douche of lace, and she carried a fan-shaped bouquet of white-orchids and lilies-of-the-valley. Her only ornament was an heirloom cameo and gold brooch previously worn by five generations of her family.

NORMA TASSE was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Otto Weaver Dieffenbach, Jr. of Farmington, the groom's sister; Joanne Kain of Cincinnati, O.; Mrs. H. T. Stiff, Jr., Cliffbeam Radabaugh, Mrs. Fred Vincent Fony and Mary Jane Gilbert, all of Nashville.

Mr. Thompson was his son's best man. Fishers included Charles Daley, Jr., and Harold Shadle of Detroit, H. T. Stiff, Jr., Edgar Kroschke, Jr., Thomas Craig and Arthur J. Vinson, Jr., the groom's uncle.

A reception at Hundred Oaks followed the ceremony. The couple are honeymooning at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and Williamsburg, Va.

MR. AND MRS. Thompson will make their home on Bates street after May 10. The bride is a graduate of Vanderbilt University where she was a member of Gamma Phi Beta. The groom attended the University of Alabama and graduated from the University of Michigan where his fraternity was Sigma Nu.

Farm Kitchen Is Scene of DAR Luncheon

An annual spring event for members of Piety Hill chapter of the DAR is the meeting held at the farm home of Mrs. Norman Lyle, 2078 East Maple road. This year they will gather on Tuesday, May 12.

Mrs. Lyle's hundred-year-old home has recently been remodeled, but the typical Michigan, farm kitchen has been retained. A potluck picnic lunch will be served from the antique lazy-susan table at 12:30 p.m.

ASSISTING Mrs. Lyle with the serving will be Mrs. Steel, R. Sellers, Mrs. Harold R. Chapel, Mrs. Charles Lawson and Mrs. Thomas McDonnell.

The annual meeting and election of officers will follow the luncheon.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

Canadian Honeymoon Follows Lang-Mutch April 25th Vows

Jeanne Mutch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Mutch of Emmons avenue, and Benjamin Lang exchanged their nuptial vows Saturday morning, April 25, in the Shrine of the Little Flower. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Lang, of Trout Creek, Ontario.

The bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin. A coronet of pearls held her braided tulle veil in place and she carried a white orchid with trailing ivy on a white, mother-of-pearl prayerbook the gift of the groom.

THE GROOM'S sister, Isabel Lang of Toronto, was the maid of honor. Mrs. James Gougeon, Mrs. Ray Killbuck and Mrs. Helen Bailey were the bridesmaids.

The attendants wore floor-length gowns in spring pastel shades. Shattered carnations in contrasting shades formed their bouquets.

Benjamin Lang, bus his brother's best man. The bride's mothers, William and Leif Mutch, and James Gougeon, acted the guests.

Mrs. Mutch wore a three-piece lustrous suit with deep toned accessories, and a purple orchid corsage. Mr. Lang chose a grey suit with navy and white accessories and a corsage of American Beauty roses.

A RECEPTION at Northwood Inn followed the nuptials. When the couple left their honeymoon, the new Mrs. Lang bore a three-piece navy wool suit with navy and white accessories.

They will make their home in Bradford, Ontario, after a wedding trip through Canada.
