OFF FOR A TOUR OF WASHINGTON, D.C. today (Thursday) is Chris Uppliger, Pierce school safety patrol captain, after Pierce was named for its safety record for the fourth time in the past six years. Here Chris is congratulated by Malcolm V. Ferguson, left, principal, and Don Barba, school head of the patrol, as he prepares to join 100 other Michigan boys in the capital trip sponsored by the Automobile Club of America. Chris, a sixth grader, is in his second year on the patrol. (Eccentric Staff Photo)

Parents Tour BHS To See Classes In Mock Sessions

Parents of high school students were given a chance to see what goes on in the classroom during achievement night last Tuesday in the high school.

The program started in the gymnasium at 7:45 p.m. with a demonstration of gym class work. Students showed map making, badminton, volleyball, tumbling and exercises.

Announcer was Roger Miller. Instructors in gym activities were Vincent Scouting, Lewis Parry, John Petrakis, and Sally Reid.

Selection of PTA officers followed. Nominations were presented by Forrest Huber, president of the PTA. Ross A. Wagner, principal, discussed the evening's program.

Tours of the departments followed under direction of Miss Alice Price, H. Ross Springmeyer and the Newcomer club.

The science department presented exhibits pertaining to biology, physics, chemistry and general science with Harold Newcomb and Ralph Battahouse instructors.

Auto mechanic students worked on cars, and welding was demonstrated in the shops with Maynard Mott supervising these activities.

Under direction of Mrs. Joan Mott, visiting students presented exhibits of commercial design and related subjects.

In the commercial department, classes under Miss Dorothy Mott and Miss Gladys Holloway demonstrated work in typing, shorthand and office machines.

ALL PHASES of art including pottery and painting were shown in the art room under supervision of Angelo Angelocci.

A style show was presented by the clothing students of Mrs. Mary Woodworth and Miss Audrey Mickelson. Child study and cooking demonstrations were also given.

A foreign language display with appropriate music was shown in Miss Virginia Louis's room.

A demonstration of work done in putting out the Highlander, school newspaper, was put on by staff members and a bulletin board was prepared by journalism students of Vida Merrill.

English and social studies displays were arranged in the cafeteria by Mrs. Irene Izard and the class chosen by Mildred Swartz's class. Social studies classes made bulletin boards.

After the tour, parents were invited to return to the cafeteria for refreshments. Mrs. A. A. Appleford was food chairman.

General chairman of achievement night was H. Ross Springmeyer.

Students to Tour State Capitol For Civic Day

The high school students working on the annual civic control day program left for Lansing this morning to observe state government in action.

The trip will include a visit to the state police, interviewing leaders of the state departments at the Capitol, lunch at the Michigan state policy union and a tour of the campus.

Later they will return to the Capitol to observe the state supreme court.

Going are Student Congress planning committee, officials elected by the senior class, and the appointed officials.

Members of the Congress committee are Jerry Harwood, Janice Cooper, Howard Johnson, Payson Chapman, Joanne Boden, Judy Le Mesurier, Don Habbitt and Bob Thalacker.

ELECTED officials are Jerry Florer, mayor; Don Habbitt, Larry Coleman, Doug Colwell, Dave Jensen, Bill Minor and Chuck Wetts, commissioners; Bob Gasser, justice of the peace; and Pete MacDonnell, constable.

No-Hitter Wins For Holy Name

It took eight long innings for the Holy Name nine to push across a run in Sunday's game against St. Mary Magdalene of Hazel Park, but the perfect control of moundman Terry O'Connor made that run stand up at Howarth field.

Terry pitched a no-hitter, but only an unearned run in the final over-time inning gave Holy Name the victory.

Mike Springer, put in as a pinch hitter, walked and then stole second. Paul Hogan was put on to run for Springer, and Hogan scored when the St. Mary Magdalene second sacker bobbled a grounder off the bat of Bob Squiers.

Chuck Werstine was credited with both of Holy Name's hits as he singled twice.

After a game here with St. Hugo, Holy Name will face St. Mary's of Royal Oak here Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m.

Three Students Gain MSC Awards

Judith Ann Shores and Evelyn Ruth Bernier of Birmingham High school and Sue Ann Hall of Bloomfield Hills High school have been granted entrance scholarships to Michigan State College for the fall term of this year.

The awards, based on the financial need of each candidate in addition to their scholastic achievement, leadership ability, and contribution to school life, are awarded for one year but may be renewed for four years if the student maintains a satisfactory scholastic average.
