

Maples Drop First Tennis Matches To Mt. Clemens

By BOB APPLEFORD.
The Birmingham tennis team, defending champions, suffered its first loss of the season last Tuesday afternoon when upset by Mt. Clemens 3-2 in a dual match.

Jerry Flores, Birmingham, and Mike Beals, Mt. Clemens, played first singles and turned in one of the finest matches in league history. Beals took the first set 6-3 with his ever steady, powerful, and accurate base line shots. In the second set Flores, still recovering from a knee operation last winter, began to warm up.

Showing a beautiful variety of over-spin and drop shots and a booming net game, Flores took an early lead. However, Beals wall? Beals showed why he is a defending league champion, coming back to nip Flores 8-6 for the victory.

HOWARD JOHNSON showed a booming forehand when he took second singles 6-4, 6-4 from Jerry Pribe. Louis Vela also looked impressive as he grabbed third singles defeating Dick Portega 6-3, 6-2. In the doubles Maples Bob Appleford and Jerry Graus played erratic tennis as they suffered a 6-5, 6-2, 6-4 defeat at the hands of Larry Wimbler and Jim Connerford.

Second doubles John Van Alstyne and Pat Marshall also fell by the scores of 3-6, 6-2, 3-6 to Bob Price and Joe Warren.

Dual matches do not decide the league championship, the Maples defending their title at the league meet in June.
