LATHRUP VILLAGE—Scouts have received an invitation to attend and participate in the church service Sunday morning Nov. 15 at the Townsite Community church.

Intermediate Girl Scouts are selling Girl Scout calendars. The money is used to finance the Southern Oakland Camp at Camp Narrin.

Troop 167 with leaders, Mrs. Albert Cattel and Mrs. Cameron Beck, have planned a trip to the Highland Park newspaper plant to learn about newspaper work on Nov. 16.

Investiture ceremonies for new Brownies were held in the Lathrup school at 4 p.m. Monday, Nov. 9, followed by a tea for the mothers. Leaders are Mrs. Edmund Viale, Mrs. M. F. Coffair, Mrs. Charles Russell, Mrs. Wayne Dickerson, Mrs. Alex Martin and Mrs. Richard Ruppel.

Mrs. E. J. Ristau is chairman of the tea. Committee includes Mrs. Charles A. Stanton, Mrs. J. A. Walker and Mrs. D. J. Beck. Monday Nov. 9 leaders and troop committee members were invited to attend the Southfield district meeting at the Presbyterian church, where Mrs. Elmer Craft was in charge of the program.

Results of the Girl Scout national convention were discussed and election of officers held. Dessert was served at 4 p.m. by St. Michael's leaders as hostesses.

A comedy "Great Expectations" by Charles Dickens will be the feature play to be given Friday and Saturday Nov. 13 and 14 by the Southfield high school in their auditorium at 8 p.m. Juan Timian and Shirley Nikolen are double cast in Estella, the heroine of the play. Playing opposite them are Chuck Patulka as the crook and Norm Peilberg and Don Koppen who engage in a boxing bout in one scene. Others in the play are Elizabeth Robinson, Lee Gith, Nancy Peterson and Mary Ann Sellman. The play is directed by James Shippee.

Miss Gretchen Moyer, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Moyer of California drive was hostess at a Halloween party on Saturday evening. Guests in costume were Linda and Connie Ferley, Mary Gidley, Judy Kimball, Jane McLaugh and Judy Jaquillard. Dinner preceded games and movies in the recreation room. Guests of Dr. and Mrs. Moyer were Dr. and Mrs. D. Neumann of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Egley and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Doreck of Lathrup boulevard.

Circles I, II, and III of the Townsite Community church will meet in Fellowship Hall on Wednesday, Nov. 18 at 10 a.m. to work on fair projects. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. by members of Circle III. Following lunch the Circles will have their regular meetings.

House Welcomes Newcomers

A special number on the program for the Newcomers' reception Nov. 18 in the Community House will be org act, "Twelfth St. Rag," taken from the forthcoming high school variety show.

Under the direction, this year, of Angelo Angecoli, the annual variety show put on by high school students is one of the entertainment highlights of the year.

Music and dancing from the show, to be presented for Newcomers, will feature Beverly Hoak, Sue McDonald, David Gibbons and Robert Luscombe. The skit will be staged by Sandy Overgard, Carole Negri, Beverly Negri, Jean Ruslander and Bettye Baker. Howard Johnson will also have a part in the program.

Mrs. Lawton Taber, program chairman for the evening, said that in addition to the high school parts, Mrs. William Milligan would also be heard in her monologue, "A Day at the Community House." Tap dancing by David Shuh will also be featured.

OTHER ATTRACTIONS for those who have moved to Birmingham during the past year, will include exhibits by local organizations, firms and churches.

Reveals Plans In Massachusetts
