

Circuit Judge Speaks To Students, Parents At Mercy League Meeting

The Mercy League, a students' mothers club of Mercy college, sponsored a parents' night at the college on Wednesday. Joseph A. Moynihan, circuit judge of Wayne county and presiding circuit judge of Michigan, was guest speaker.

Two films in color and sound were shown and refreshments served. Parents met the faculty and toured the college buildings. Attending from this area were: Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Geisler, 5630 Wing Lake road, and daughter, Dolores, a junior in home economics; and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jensen, 17225 Melrose, with daughter, Marianne, a sophomore in the nursing program.

FRANKLIN—Back after five weeks in Europe are Mr. and Mrs. James Savage of Bloomfield lane. Savage, vice president of the O. W. Burke Co. in Detroit, contractors for the Edsel Ford Memorial Auditorium in Detroit's waterfront civic project, flew to Norway to order granite.

Said to be the largest order ever placed by an American firm, this business will provide boom employment for Norwegian quarries. Accordingly, the plush carpet was met by the Savages who were out for the master of Oslo, the consul, reporters and various European dignitaries. Savage was interviewed on a nationwide radio program. The Savages followed business with pleasure, travelling through Norway, Sweden, Denmark, France and Spain, and returning stateside on the Queen Mary.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Reed took off last week Tuesday for Ingersoll, Ontario, to do some deer hunting in the vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jones returned recently from a color tour which took them through Cochrane and North Bay, Ontario and on to Quebec.

Visitor at the John Wretford home on Crestwood drive is Mrs. Wretford's mother, Mrs. C. G. Woodberry, here from Poston, S. C. The Wretfords will have as their houseguests, this weekend, her brother, Sgt. C. A. Woodberry, and his wife. The sergeant has been with the U. S. Army in Germany for two years.

The ladies of St. Anne's guild, Franklin chapter of the Altar Society of Holy Name church, met yesterday at the Colby lane home of Mrs. Mel Mitchell for their November meeting. Mesdames Otto Schubert, V. P. Ryan and James McGuire were co-hostesses at the noon luncheon. The membership of the guild has grown so large that it was decided to divide it on a geographical basis. Ladies east of Telegraph road will form a new guild, unnamed as yet.

Leonard Lawton, recording secretary; Mrs. Connel Shelton, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. John Whiting, treasurer. Elected as officers of the new guild are Mrs. James McGuire, chairman; Mrs. Harold Longeway, co-chairman; Mrs. Jessie Spencer, recording secretary; Mrs. Albert Yost, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Lawrence Dunn, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chapman have sold their home on Evelyn court and have moved to a new home in Westacres, near Middle Straits lake. The Chapmans lived in Franklin two years.

November's children: Happy birthday to Doran Pesar, 11 years old today, and to Barbara Brown, who will be nine on Nov. 29. Barbara Holmes was eight on Nov. 1; Kathy Whiting celebrated her sixth birthday on Nov. 7; Gail Wecker was 13 on Nov. 2 and John Lowcke became 11 years old on Nov. 8.

The Franklin fire department commission held its regular monthly meeting this week. The new siren was tested last Saturday afternoon and reports from all parts of the area indicate that it is a vast improvement over the old fire warning. It is generally conceded that the new siren is a "howling success." The community's thanks to the several volunteers who worked hard on the installation job in most uncomfortable weather, and to Jack LeVan and Harry Huettner for the loan of trucks.

Christmas Wrappings

Gift wrapping for Christmas packages will be illustrated for the North Suburban Alumnae chapter of Alpha Xi at 7:45 p.m. Nov. 17 memberships. St. Anne's officers for the new fiscal year are Mrs. Phil VanDyke, chairman; Mrs. Ed Post and Mrs. Donald Borgeson.

Metropolitan Auxiliary Holds Annual Election; Planning Special Events

Election of officers and Christmas party plans were featured at the meeting last week of the Metropolitan club's Ladies Auxiliary.

Heading the organization for the coming year will be Mrs. Glenn Foltz, president; Mrs. Sam Snell, vice president; Mrs. Marie Holmquist, recording secretary; Mrs.

Milford Fuller, financial secretary and Mrs. Robert Schmale, treasurer. Mrs. Ralph Bell was named sergeant-at-arms; Miss Winona Singers, auditor and Mrs. Ernest Korby, chaplain.

The group decided to have the members' Christmas party on Dec. 2, with final plans to be announced later.

Preliminary details for the presentation of Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets to a needy family were outlined.
