Birthday Events Keep W. Beverly Folks Busy

By VIRGINIA DETWILER
Staff Correspondent

WEST BEVERLY—Last week was a great one for birthdays in West Beverly. To celebrate the 70th birthday of Robert N. Johns, his family arranged a gala surprise party for him on Oct. 31, including a cocktail hour for about 65 guests at his Waltham road home and a dinner for 22 at the Birmingham Country club.

Guests who came from out of town for the occasion were the Malcolm Griffins and Harry B. Spiders, of Kitchener, Ont., and the Eric F. Wienkes, of Saginaw, Johns, who had attended a "birthday dinner" given for him on the 20th by his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Waterman, of Detroit, was completely surprised by his guests.

Mrs. Wienke will be a house guest in the Johns home soon, while Johns goes to the Wienkes' lodge near Curran, Mich., for a week's deer hunting.

Another family very much occupied with a birthday were the Wellington Wards, of Kirkshire road, who journeyed to Grosse Pointe on Nov. 4 to attend a party for her father, W. J. Dawling. A former Michigan racing commissioner and resident of Detroit, Dowling was celebrating his 75th birthday. Also attending the party at the City club were the R. Edmund Dowlings and the Charles Hewitts, of Grosse Pointe.

The surprise party idea can have its drawbacks, too. On Oct. 31, the day when his wife had planned to "spring" 25 birthday guests on him, Jim Leach, of W. 14-Mile road, announced to the household that his next project would be to remove all the kitchen cupboard doors and do some repair work around the house. After giving the family a few bad hours, he thought better of his plan, and the party still a surprise to him, came off that evening without a hitch.

The Harry Menards, of Bedford road, returned last week from a two-week visit with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Egan, who recently moved from Birmingham to Bronxville, N. Y. Besides "just visiting", they spent some time play-acting, and enjoying long drives in Connecticut. On their theatrical bill of fare were "The King and I", Rosalind Russell's "Wonderful Town", and "Dial M for Murder", with Maurice Evans.

The next meeting of the garden club will be held Thursday, Nov. 19, at the home of Mrs. Arthur DeLorain on Bedford road. Project for the day will be the decoration of dandelions for the holiday season. Members will furnish their own dandelions.

Back from a month's visit with the A. V. McAlleys in Deland, Fla., is Mrs. Robert Elmers, of Kirkshire road. The Elmers spent last weekend at their cottage at Ft.align, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Barkum, Jr., have sold their home on Buckingham road, and are at present at the west coast, where they plan to visit their family for two months.

News from West Beverly, but not to the Birmingham area, are Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Poppelt, who moved to their new home at 18910 Warwick road, three weeks ago. Their former home was in Birmingham.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Sheriff's "Push" Pulls a Vote

Was talking with our newly elected Sheriff Williams the other day. He told me about a fellow who stopped by his place late one night just before election.

"I heard a knock at the door," he said. "Fellow I never saw before. Told me his car went dead down the road and would I give him a shove. My boy, Flip, and I went out to his car with him. We're all set to push when he stops on the starter and the motor turns over.

"Well, Flip and I just stood there when the fellow leans out the window and says, 'Just wanted to make sure you're the right man to vote for.'

From where I sit, the fellow who's quick to lend a hand makes any community a better one. But you don't have to run for office to prove you're a good neighbor. One way I know is just to have a little regard for the other fellow. Whether your neighbor likes beer or buttermilk, don't try to push him to your choice. Just give him your "vote of confidence."
