SHOPPING DAYS Before Christmas

But, when you recall that this includes Thanksgiving and the heightened social activity through Christmas there is little enough time. So, may we suggest that you start compiling your list of whom is to receive, what they are to receive and then start immediately to avoid the rush and to be sure of finding the greatest selection. And when choosing your gifts —

Consider The Advantages Of Giving

STERLING

A very welcome gift at every home is sterling silverware, whether it be an addition to their present pattern or an occasional piece in hollowware. The choice is unlimited.

- 125 Patterns To Choose From
- GORHAM • WALLACE • LUNT
 - REED & BARTON • HEIRLOOM
 - INTERNATIONAL • TOWLE

WATCHES

The choice of watches is widened when you consider that styles vary from formal to informal and that use determines the movement and case. The possession of a watch does not mean another would be unused. And for the finest of watches we offer

- GIRARD-PEREGAUX • MOVADO
- HAMILTON • OMEGA

DIAMONDS

The gift for expressing greatest affection is a diamond and, a diamond of Lake Jewelers' quality is your assurance of the very best for your investment. Whether in a ring setting or in jewelry, diamonds are a most treasured gift.

WALNUT LAKE—A pot luck luncheon at 12:30 will open the Nov. 17 meeting of the West Bloomfield League of Women Voters. This informal hour at West Bloomfield township hall has been planned to help newcomers become acquainted with other members of the League.

At 2 p.m. Dr. Leif Hougen, superintendent of the West Bloomfield consolidated school system, will explain the school districts in the township and tell of future building plans. Following Dr. Hougen's talk, chairmen of the township survey groups will report on progress to date.

Mrs. Graham Overgard of Walnut Lake road is handling the 13-WV annual calendar sale in the area.

The Walnut Lake PTA meeting scheduled for Nov. 9 has been postponed to Nov. 16, when Open House will be held at the school. The change of date was decided at an executive board meeting held Nov. 3 at the home of the principal, Miss Marjorie Votey.

Those present were Mrs. Otis Fockler, Mrs. O. S. Koskinen, Miss Nola Peasley, Mrs. C. M. Heller, Mrs. Harold Jones, John Nabadian, Keith Symon, Roland Walton, J. B. Roberts and Miss Votey.

The next meeting of Junior Big will be held at the Sub. 2 clubhouse on Friday, Nov. 20, from 7 to 9 p.m.

The Walnut Lake branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association met Nov. 2 at the home of Mrs. Neil Lund, with 13 members present. Mrs. Henry Jokela reported on the Michigan division council meeting which she and Mrs. Lund attended at the Detroit Boat club Oct. 15. Mrs. E. Maund, secretary, read the constitution of the national organization. This was discussed and some changes made for the local branch. Refreshments were served from a table decorated with tea roses from Mrs. Lund's garden.

The Cub Scout meeting will be held at the school on Thursday, Nov. 19, at 7:30 p.m. On Nov. 7 the Cubs visited at the home of Mrs. E. Maund, secretary, read the constitution of the national organization. This was discussed and some changes made for the local branch. Refreshments were served from a table decorated with tea roses from Mrs. Lund's garden.

Last week Den 5 worked on scopes and a pack game. Don Sutton was temporary reporter. Dens 1, 2 and 3 joined in a hike up the Indian Trail. John Bishop, Punch Symon and Arthur Allen brought nibbles.

Brownies of Troop 325 met at the school last week to finish their felt pig coin purses. After games outdoors they heard more of the Brownie story. Christine Layman served nibbles.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Reese Hann and their 18-month-old daughter, Laurie, who have come to their new home on Kenmoor from Livonia. Honn teaches fifth and sixth grade at Kuthraff school in Detroit.

Other new neighbors on Kenmoor are the Arthur Schuelers, whose children are Arthur, Jr., almost nine and better known as Sandy, and six-year-old Candy. Schueler, an attorney in Detroit, is an ardent hunter and fisherman. The family comes from Royal Oak.

Leaving Walnut Lake last week to live in Oak Park were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nelson, Robin and Bobby. The Nelsons have lived on Lakeshire since last spring.

Hugh Whitmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Whitmer, returned Nov. 1 from duty in Korea, where he had been stationed at a hospital at Jaegye. Now discharged from the Army, he will stay at Walnut Lake with his parents.

Spending last week with the Don Harrisons of Lawndale was Mrs. Harrison's sister, Mrs. John Davis of Columbus, Ohio, who came especially to meet her new niece, Kathryn.

Connie Sarlund, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Sarlund of Danmore road, was hostess at a party Nov. 4 on the occasion of her 11th birthday. Joining Connie for refreshments and games were Karen Harper, Jeanne Mott, Jerry Chalmers and David Sarlund.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Sanborn of Lakeshire drive returned last week from Washington, D. C. and Virginia, where they visited Sanborn's relatives at Alexandria. They found the fall colors still brilliant in Virginia and the mountains.

Celebrating her sixteenth birthday Nov. 1 at a party was Lynda Murray, daughter of the E. E. Murray of Meadowlake Farms. Guests were Nora Koskinen, Jean Hellenberg, Janine Fockler, Lynn Chesterfield, Pamela Pottelger, Barbara Kipp, Joyce Smith, Betty Allen, Susan and Patty Turner, Lise Forest, Mary Beth Burkhardt, Lynn Eiler of Pontiac and Lynda's sister Connie. Highlight of the day for most of the little girls was the ride home in the Murray's bus, which is outfitted as a vacation cabin.

Mrs. J. F. Keane of Eastman drive recently spent two weeks at Natick, Mass., where she visited her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Gilday, and her two little granddaughters.

Among the Halloween parties in the neighborhood was one at the John A. Smith home on Westmoor road, where Joan's school friends gathered for games and to enjoy the doughnuts made throughout the evening by Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

Pierce PTA Sets Open House Date, Membership Drive

The November meeting of the Pierce PTA will be the annual school Open House on Nov. 19 at 8 p.m.

Following a short business meeting in the school gymnasium, parents will go to their children's classrooms to meet the teachers and other parents. The children's work and achievements will be on display in the various rooms.

This meeting affords parents an opportunity to see the kind of work being done in their children's classes and allows them to become acquainted with the teachers.

The annual membership drive will get under way at the Open House under the direction of M. J. Christiansen, membership chairman. A committee of fathers will sign up parents for PTA membership in each classroom.

Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria after the Open House.

Wintering in the South

Mexico City and Winter Park, Fla., was the destination of Mrs. Robert H. Skillman when she left her West Hickory Grove road home in Bloomfield Hills Monday morning. Mrs. Skillman will join her sister in Mexico, spending about three weeks there before leaving for Florida for the balance of the winter.
