

Wedding Date Set By City Deputy Clerk

Engagement is announced of Nancy Ault Garretson, deputy city clerk of Birmingham, to Capt. Herbert E. Marlatt, Detroit. Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Pickett of Warren, Ohio and resides at 1272 Washington.

Capt. Marlatt recently returned from 36 months as a prisoner of war in Korea. Before his capture he was an aide to General Dean.

Wedding plans are being made for Dec. 27 at the Post Chapel at Selfridge Field.

Rapunzel To Bring Post-Holiday Treat

The day after Thanksgiving will bring to the Birmingham Theater the second of the season of plays sponsored by the Children's Theater group. "Rapunzel and the Witch" will appear for two performances, at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m., Nov. 27. Children's World Theater from New York will present the play.

Rapunzel tells the story of the princess who has such long hair that even though she is imprisoned in a tower, the Prince can climb to her on the ladder made by her long braids. How Rapunzel escapes the power of the witch, and finds the Prince after a dreadful search is what the Birmingham children will find out next week.

Tickets will be on sale at the theater box office the day of the play only.

Double Ring Rites Unite Jerry Bosleys

A new ranch-type home in Milford awaits Mr. and Mrs. A. Jerome Bosley, Jr., when they return from their Florida honeymoon on Nov. 29.

The couple were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Thomas Rodgers at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, Nov. 14, at the Shrine of the Little Flower.

Formerly Carol Ruth Grimpé, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Grimpé of Royal Oak. Jerry's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. Jerome Bosley of 640 Greenwood avenue.

FOR HER wedding, Carol chose a floor-length gown of white lace over satin with a lace jacket buttoning down the front. It was fashioned with a pointed collar and long sleeves ending in points over her wrists. Her full skirt was gathered to a princess style waistline.

A fingertip veil fell from her close-fitting cap of net and satin and she carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and ivy tied with satin streamers.

Virginia Grimpé, her sister's maid of honor, was dressed in a delphinium blue gown of net and taffeta. A band of lace trim on the ballerina length skirt formed a redingote effect over a front panel of pleated net. A matching blue taffeta bolero jacket and cap headpiece completed her ensemble.

Bridesmaid was Mrs. Donald C. Price, Jr., dressed in an identical delphinium blue gown. Both attendants carried bouquets of yellow and bronze taji mums and autumn leaves.

ASSISTING Jerry were his brother, Thomas, as best man and Donald C. Price, Jr., as groomsmen. Seating the guests were two other brothers of the groom, Charles and John Bosley.

Mrs. Grimpé chose a two-piece iridescent teal blue taffeta gown for her daughter's wedding. Her accessories were gold and black and she wore a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Bosley was dressed in a cedarwood taffeta and lace gown with pink and black accessories and a pink matron corsage.

Following a wedding breakfast at Devon Gables, the newlyweds left for a trip to Cocoa Beach, Fla. For traveling, the new Mrs. Bosley wore a brown flecked wool suit, fashioned with straight skirt and boxy jacket. Her accessories were brown shoes and purse and turquoise velvet hat and gloves.
