Serves on Sales Staff Of "Old World Market"

When the "Old World Market" opens at the International Institute in Detroit today, local interest will be centered on the Christmas booth which has Mrs. Harold McPike, 534 Woodale, as its sales staff.

The 23rd annual Market will see a parade of authentic costumes from 26 nations. Foreign goods and gifts, crafts, cooking demonstrations, folk dancing and music by 50 nationalities will provide entertainment from 4 to 10 p.m., Thursday through Sunday.

Special programs will be staged throughout the four-day event, which is expected to attract 11,000 or more visitors. More than 500 persons from Detroit and vicinity have worked on the Market this year.

Altrusa to Receive Charter on Monday

Several officers of the fourth district, Altrusa International, Inc., will take part in the ceremony Monday evening when the Greater Birmingham club receives its official charter.

Principle speaker of the evening will be Dr. Viva Boothe, district governor, whose topic will be "Altrusa's Service in Four Dimensions." Others appearing are to be Mrs. Opal Cunningham, governor-elect, speaking on "Altrusa Looks to the Future" and Dr. Thomas James, immediate past governor, "What It Means to Be an Altrusan."

Mrs. Ramona Bretz, extension chairman, will give the invocation and Miss Helen M. Hartman, second vice governor will pronounce the benediction.

Mrs. Velma Isley, charter president of the organization, which was formed March 24, 1952, will preside at the meeting.

DR. BOOTHE, director of the bureau of business research at Ohio State university, has been an Altrusan since 1941 and has held many executive positions.

A resident of Columbus, Ohio, she holds degrees from the Universities of Texas and Pennsylvania, and was one time head of Elmira (N. Y.) college department of economics and sociology. She has been with Ohio State since 1928.

A member of numerous service clubs she has also been active on several city and state committees in Ohio. Dr. Boothe is the author of seven articles on economics.

DR. JAMES is a graduate of the University of Michigan with a Ph.D. degree from the University of Chicago. She is professor of English at Wayne university and director of that institution's folklore project.

Mrs. Cunningham, governor-elect of the club, is training director in a Detroit department store. A former high school teacher, she is well known as a speaker on the training of merchandising personnel throughout the United States and Canada.
