

IT WAS AN UPSIDE-DOWN WORLD for one small Birmingham pigeon for several minutes Monday morning when his leg band became caught high in the structure of the Birmingham Theater sign. The bird hung head down until a passerby by attracted by the beating sound of its wings, Birmingham Dog Warden Ralph Riley was summoned and he is pictured gingerly descending ladders placed to rescue the bird. The bird, injured by man's inventions, is recovering at a local veterinary hospital from a badly swollen leg. (Eccentric Staff Photo)
