Kalisteniks

No scuffing, thanks to the tough Allente Tip. And no ripping, either—Kalisteniks have seamless backs. Yet there's plenty of comfort and good looks in every pair, too.

Drumstick Ball Set For Nov. 28

The annual Drumstick ball is to be held Nov. 28 in the Maple room at Birmingham high school.

It is sponsored by club DJFR and will feature Alan Zito and his orchestra. Zito has played with many big bands, including Ralph Flanagan, Woody Herman and Vaughn Monroe.

The dance is strictly party dress and is headed by George Stimmet, general chairman. Bob Smith is in charge of ticket sales; Bob Gove, decorations; Doug Green, refreshments; Bruce Terry, publicity; and Bill Fay, chaperone.

These will include Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Fay, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Landry, Mr. and Mrs. Milton J. Taup and Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Smith.

As it is vacation time many alumni are expected to attend and renew old acquaintances.

Cranbrook Soccer Team Tops Sarnia

Last Friday afternoon, Nov. 13, the Cranbrook Varsity Soccer team defeated Sarnia, Ontario Vocational School by a score of 2-0 in a game played in Canada.

Both teams played a rough and aggressive game, with the first score coming in the second quarter when Fred Matter moved the ball down the left wing and then took the ball into the net.

The third quarter remained scoreless in spite of several attempts at each goal. In the fourth and final quarter, Cranbrook worked the ball deep into Sarnia territory and Leo Butzel booted in the final score with assistance from Hidalgo Gonzalo. The Sarnia goalie stopped thirteen shots at his goal out of fifteen tries by Cranbrook; Albert Moran, Cranbrook's goalie saved ten shots from becoming scores.

The Sarnia game, last of the season for the Cranes, resulted in a season of 2 wins, 2 ties and 4 losses.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE SCHOOL NEWS

Kindergarten—Mrs. Pyne: We are learning to write our names so we will be ready for first grade next year. We have learned three new Thanksgiving songs. We enjoy watching the men who are building around our school.

First grade—Mrs. Ayer: Mark Olson went to the Ford hospital to have his tonsils removed. We are happy to welcome Benjamin (Robbi) Robertson III to our class. Robbie lives at 1000 Forest Lane, Susan Jost left November 13 for Florida. She will be gone all year.

Second grade—Mrs. Gregory: John Wagner was eight this week. We have begun a unit study of the characteristics of insects, mammals, and birds. We are bringing in pictures representing these. We just finished an animal dictionary for our pennmanship.

THIRD GRADE—Mrs. Pike: We are reading "Paddle-to-the-Sea." We have made a map to cover part of our school showing how Paddle went. It is in bright colors of blue, orange and yellow. We put the names of many important cities on it.

Bill Wolfram is in the hospital. Yesterday we all wrote him a letter. We hope he will be back soon. We have also received many new library books.

Fifth grade—Miss Allcorn: Our class is studying about the Louisiana Territory and how it became a part of the United States. Some of the people in our class are writing reports on the Louisiana Territory and the people concerned.

Bob Scott is going to move away from our school in a week or two. We are going to have a surprise party for Bob before he leaves.

College Awards Go To Students

The Harvard university and Williams College book awards were presented to John Hubert and Bill Hohmeyer in a recent assembly at the Birmingham high school.

The boys were chosen in their junior year by a committee consisting of Ross A. Wagner, principal; class advisers, counselors, and two students.

John is president of Student Congress, letterman in basketball member of Assembly club and member of National Honor Society. Bill is vice-president of Student Congress, letterman in football president of Junior Musicales member of the policy-making board of the Washington group and a good student.

Benjamin Brewster, representative of the Harvard club of Eastern Michigan, presented the Harvard book award and explained that Harvard is interested in character as well as scholarship.

The Williams book award was presented for the first time to a Birmingham high school student whose character and citizenship is typical of Williamsmen.

Students Prepare Football Programs

Under direction of the Royal Oak Kiwanis club, members of Birmingham high school journalism class assisted in the preparation of the football program for the traditional Thanksgiving day game.

Editors of the Birmingham copy and pictures were Jim Mosby and Pete Kass, Birmingham football reporters.

Writing for the program were Mike Groves, Jim McMahon, Joan Fairbairn, Jim Kraus, Jim Mosby and Pete Kass. Interviewing school officials connected with the game were Don Dorough, Jerry Beck and Carol Klein.

The program includes articles about the school bands, cheerleaders, teams, captains, etc.

Royal Oak publishes the program this year because the game is played at Cass Field.

Dance After Game Given By Pep Club

Following the football game Friday night a dance was given in the high school gym by the Pep Club.

Dave Andrae's band played with Sharon Stanton singing. Other entertainers were Dave Schuh, tap dancing and Howard Johnson playing the piano.

Refreshments were sold during the evening.
