 BIRMINGHAM

PRIVATE WILLIAM E. Boetscher, son of Raymond W. Boetscher, 2289 Thirteen Mile road, Southfield township, recently completed basic training at the Third Armored Division, Fort Knox, Ky. He entered the Army on August 17 of this year.

Troy Tables Rezoning

A recommendation by the Troy zoning board to rezone a parcel of land near Maple and Livernois from agricultural to industrial has been tabled by township board members who believe that opposition from home owners in the area should be heeded by the township.

Have You Met . . .

 CHRISTMAS

ARE YOU
 On That Christmas List
 MERRY-GO-ROUND?

The circumstances that bring forth such a situation are first, a list of who is to receive in the back of the mind instead of on paper, a vague idea of what they are to receive rather than specific gifts, a feeling that time is growing short (it is). So, to derive greater shopping pleasure for Christmas we suggest you make up your list of WHO and WHAT—then start now for more leisurely shopping and greater selection. And at Lake's you will find a selection of gifts that will be most appreciated by everyone.
