News About GIRL SCOUTS

TROOP 359—FRANKLIN

On Monday, Nov. 2, Girl Scout Troop 359 held an investiture ceremony for a new member, Mary Ann Matulatus.

Gail Chapman, one of our very loyal members is leaving our troop. She is moving to West Acres. As a going away gift, we presented her with one of those lovely new Girl Scout books. We all wished Gail good luck and are very sorry to see her leave.

All the girls worked on the Afghan we are making for the church bazaar. It should be pretty when it is finished. The Girl Scouts are busy taking orders for 1954 calendars this week. Remember to order one.

Betty Brozic,
Assistant Troop Scribe.

TROOP 303—PIERCE SCHOOL

Brownie Troop 303 had a Halloween party at the home of Mrs. G. V. Mills. Cider and doughnuts were served. Prizes in games were won by Robin Zawodni. Each girl was given a Halloween treat as she left for home. Leaders are Mrs. Strawbridge, Mills and Portwood.

TROOP 432—QUARTON

We've had two special programs in October. The girls were taken to the Detroit Historical Museum which proved very interesting to all. We also planned a cook-out, this turned out to be a cook-in because of bad weather. We used the fireplace in the recreation room of the assistant leader and had a fine time.

TROOP 345—QUARTON SCHOOL

The girls are busily mending, washing, ironing and fixing things for Christmas for their adopted family. During the beautiful Indian summer days we have been having the girls have enjoyed nature hikes.

TROOP 430—QUARTON SCHOOL

Brownie Troop 430 started their fall program with a trip to the Franklin Cider mill. At the next meeting, at the regular meeting place, Brownies played baseball and the following week Mrs. McNab had the girls to her home and showed them how to make Halloween favors.

Walnut Lake PTA Asks Traffic Snarl Answer

By LOUISE ROBERTS
Staff Correspondent

WALNUT LAKE—Hoping that the traffic conditions in front of Walnut Lake school may be bettered now, rather than after a child is hurt, the PTA executive board has appointed a committee of Mrs. Otis Fockler, chairman, Miss Marjorie Votey and Mrs. Harold Jones to investigate possible solutions.

Principal causes of danger are motorists who drive too fast in passing the school, cars double-parked while waiting for or discharging children and parents, parked on the north side of Walnut Lake road, who urge their children to "hurry" without waiting for the duty boy's signal to cross the road.

Conditions are made worse this year by the parked cars of men working on the school addition.

The committee has already met with West Bloomfield Township Supervisor Hiland M. Thatcher to discuss safety measures. A proposal to paint two yellow crosswalks and other warning markings on the road is under consideration. Plans are being made to eliminate parking congestion near the crosswalks. Meanwhile, parents are urged to use great caution in passing the school and to cooperate completely with the duty boys' instructions.

Wayne university students from Formosa, the Dominican Republic, Brazil and Australia were speakers at the Walnut Lake Women's club meeting Nov. 10 at West Bloomfield Township hall. Housed with American families, the young women are learning about the American way of life as they pursue studies in their chosen professions.

Poo Luan Hau of Taipei, Formosa, is spending a year in the United States studying public health nursing. She will be supervisor of a health center upon her return to Formosa and will teach. Isabelle Best of the Dominican Republic is also here for a year. Now studying pediatric nursing, she will work with the hospitals upon her return to her own country.

A welcome and soon a farewell to the Martin Gustafsons of Daintree road. With their daughters Faith, 5, and Barbara, 3, they came from Iron Mountain, with a stop in Birmingham before coming to Walnut Lake this fall. Gustafson is with the Big Bear Market system in Detroit and hopes to move closer to his work.

Now settled in his new home on Appoline is Wilfred Dawson, who, with his parents and sister, has been coming to Walnut Lake for swimming and picnics for many years. The family has owned property here since Dawson was a boy but continued to live in Royal Oak. Dawson is an accountant. His mother, Mrs. Thomas Dawson, is spending the fall with him but plans to return this winter to her California home, near that of her married daughter.

Cub Scout Den 1 made match holders at last week's meeting. Rod Brown brought nibs. John Bishop, keeper of the buckskins, reported. Den 3 Cubs made paper hats and discussed their project for the Cub Scout fair. Gerald Gibson served nibs, according to Gordon Joritz. Den 5 finished their den game for today's pack meeting, worked on scoops and played football. Don Emrich reports. Carl Hellenberg was host. Den 6 decorated a large tub for the pack meeting and made comb cases and change purses. Mrs. Myers provided the nibs. Billy Quick reported the meeting.
