

Congregational Minister to be Charter Member

An unusual event will take place at the Congregational Church of Birmingham Sunday, Nov. 29, when the minister-elect joins the newly founded church and becomes a charter member.

The Rev. Robert D. Dewey and Mrs. Dewey will come to Birmingham Sunday to become members of the congregation during the 1 o'clock service held in the First Presbyterian church on North Woodward. Mr. Dewey will preach the sermon for the service.

THE LOCAL CHURCH will be welcomed into the Congregational association of Detroit, with representatives of that body present at the service.

Among the guests will be the association superintendent, the Rev. Edward W. Wilcox, J.D., who has been occupying the pulpit until a regular pastor was engaged.

Other association representatives will be Mrs. John D. Dail, the Rev. S. Lawrence Johnson, Mrs. D. R. Olson and Baird Roberts.

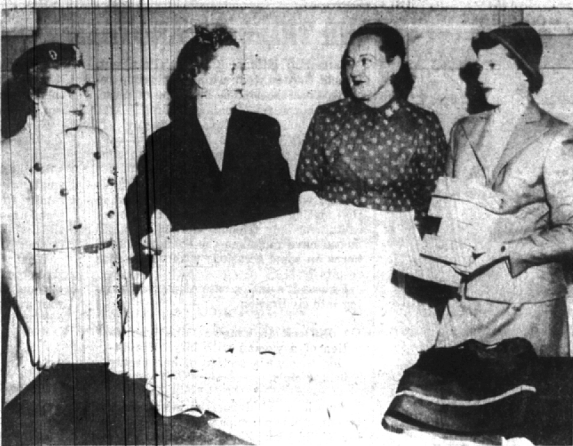

Following the worship service a brief business meeting is scheduled.

26 New Members Listed For Redeemer Lutheran

Confirmation rites at Redeemer Lutheran church last Sunday saw 26 communicants received into membership.

New members are Mr. and Mrs. Blair Marasco, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Pierce, Mrs. Alan Stigleman, Mrs. Glen Brozo, Jacqueline Brozo, Betty Smith, Mrs. Edward Grahm, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller.

Mrs. Louis Knocke, Mrs. Nicholas Mohr, Beatrice Snyder, Benjamin Howay, Mrs. John Whitley, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schalm, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Black, Warren Coyle, Orlyn Ehrlichman, Dorothy Khoury, Chester Myren and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Moeller.

"HOLIDAY FOR THINGS" is the theme of the bazaar sponsored by the Altar society of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Catholic church. Mrs. Charles Brindle, Mrs. John H. Kelley, chairman, Mrs. James O'Rourke and Mrs. Allen T. Frederick examine some of the aprons which will be featured. The affair will have booths for religious articles, baked goods, white elephant items, parcel post, and many objects of special interest to children. The sale, planned to benefit the building fund, will be held in the church social hall on Dec. 5, from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. (Eccentric Staff Photo)

Madonna Display, Talk for WSCS

"The Madonna in Art" will be the subject of Mrs. William Braley of Beverly Hills when she speaks before the Women's Society of Christian Service for the First Methodist church on Dec. 2.

A resident of the area for two years, Mrs. Braley has been collecting Madonnas for about 20 years. She will display about 25 of the figurines and paintings to illustrate her talk.

The meeting is to be held in the church parlors, with an executive board session at 11 a.m. The Carrie Murray group will be in charge of the 12:45 luncheon.

The devotional period is to be directed by Mrs. Bryan Rich. A period of group singing of Christmas carols has also been planned.

The society is planning another series of Bible lectures by Mrs. Maurice Garbrant. The first of the four monthly meetings is scheduled for January, 1964.

is the topic of the Rev. Emil Kontz as he continues his series based on "The Apostles Creed" Sunday morning. His evening sermon will be another in the "Candid Views of Christ" series, his topic, "Lord of Life—His Face." On Wednesday Mr. Kontz will speak on "Making America more Christian," another on the theme of "Baptist Faith, Function and Fellowship."

Townsite Community
"The Concept of a Free Church" is the topic selected by the Rev. John D. Rose for his sermon Sunday morning.

Church Story To Be Topic

The history of the construction of the new Presbyterian church on East Maple will be the subject of the program for the annual Christ tea of the First Presbyterian Women's association. The program will be in the parlors of the Woodward avenue church, Dec. 2, from 2 to 4 p.m.

Mrs. Clifford Dunn, program chairman, said the afternoon's activities would open with a devotional period, with singing by the Cherub choir.

Earl Triplett will show a series of color movies on the new building, beginning at the time of the groundbreaking continuing through to the raising of the steeple and the cornerstone ceremony.

The Rev. W. Glen Harris, Ph.D., will speak on "The New Church."

IN CHARGE of decorations is Mrs. Charles Aake, Jr., assisted by Mrs. Carman Adams, Mrs. J. S. McDaniel and Mrs. R. S. Plexico.

Mrs. H. C. Carlson is chairman of the tea committee with Mrs. Milton Mallender, Mrs. R. J. Nichols and Mrs. Norman W. Berry assisting.

Mrs. W. Glen Harris and Mrs. Robert Graham, wives of the Presbyterian pastors, will preside at the tea table. Their assistants are to be Mrs. John Machin, director of Christian education, and Mrs. Robert Watt, president of the Women's association.

Smile A Minute

The amateur golfer sliced his drive and the ball came to rest on the top of a large ant hill. The duffer picked up another club and swung. The ball remained still, but the iron plowed into the ant hill, inflicting great casualties among the inhabitants.

With more confidence than skill, the golfer swung around again, leaving the ball unmoved but sending the rest of the ants to their celestial glory. That is, all except two, one of which turned to the other to say:

"You know if we want to survive, we'd better get on the ball."

SANTA CLAUS ISN'T in the picture but is probably "seeing" the Christmas items being tried out by Mrs. Raymond Stief, Mrs. Charles Parrott, Mrs. David Bradbury and Mrs. Raymond Pioch. Mrs. Parrott and Mrs. Bradbury head the bazaar at Our Shepherd Lutheran church on Dec. 3, when Santa will pay an evening visit. The affair opens at 2 p.m., to 7 by Jack Slagle. Mrs. Clayton Wilson and Wallace Rice who plan an Italian spaghetti menu. The affair will feature many booths, planned mainly for Christmas shoppers. Funds are to be used to purchase a new refrigerator for the church kitchen.
