

"The Witching Hours"
Cabaret at Ann Arbor

Sophomore women at the University of Michigan will carry on a long standing tradition when they present "The Witching Hours," annual sophomore cabaret, Dec. 4 and 5. Produced, directed and staged by 250 women, the cabaret is a carnival of events featuring a stage show, a dance and a course of amusement booths, including fortune tellers, games of chance and refreshments.

In the cast of the stage show "Ghosts are My Hobby" is Mary L. Holmes of 27670 California, Lathrup Village. Barbara G. Baker of Martell drive, Bloomfield Hills, is refreshments chairman.

FRANKLIN—Members of the Franklin chapter of the Women's National Farm and Garden association and their guests will gather at the Community Hall from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. on Saturday, Dec. 5 for a workday on Christmas decorations.

Mrs. Paul Kanold is overall chairman of this session. Mrs. Harry Barr will be in charge of mantel and Christmas tree decorations; Mrs. Carl Rasmussen, wreaths, swags and sprays; Mrs. Gerald Wright, table decorations and Mrs. Lynn Roberts, painting of weeds, pods and pine cones.

Mrs. Clarence Wachner will act as general consultant and Mrs. William Johnson will lead the sale of greens, florist wire, ribbon, candles, wreath hooks and other materials.

The Franklin Community association is sponsoring a public square dance at the Community Hall at 8:30 tomorrow night. Art Carty and Dick Lewis will serve as callers. The association is also sponsoring a football party. A chartered bus will take about 50 of the members to see the Detroit Lions-Bears game at Briggs Stadium on Sunday, Dec. 6.

The Community association's committee chairman for the new fiscal year will be Harry Rottiers and Ray Adams, civic affairs; Bill Jones, house; Claude Cooke and Jack Roberts, entertainment; Ben Harris, finance; Paul Zenghauser, auditing; and Phil Van Dyke, publicity.

This last Monday found a crew of association members giving the hall a new coat of paint. It is expected that another crew will get to work inside next week with new wallpaper.

Franklin fire department volunteers met last Sunday morning to complete the installation of the new generator, floodlights and reels on the pumper.

Thanksgiving dinner guests of the Vinley Bohls, at their home on Redfern road, are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Thropp, an aunt, Mrs. Clara Brown, and an uncle, Frank Thropp, all of Detroit.

The Bohls attended the Credit Union institute convention held at the Kellogg institute on the Michigan State campus at E. Lansing last week. Bohls is president of the Ferndale credit unit.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Egan will be hosts at cocktails at their home on Appletree Lane tomorrow night preceding the annual Woodbrook Christmas ball, held this year at the Birmingham country club. Their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Richard Caskey, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Ranfield, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Van Dyke and the Claude Cookes.

Miss Mary Casenhiser, daughter of the Edwin Casenhisers of Whalley road, joined friends from Pleasant Ridge and Huntington Woods last weekend in a trip to Toronto to see the annual Toronto horse show.

Committee chairmen for St. Anne's Guild for the new fiscal year are Mrs. Edwin Casenhiser, program; Mrs. Clyde Worley and Mrs. Otto Schubert, ways and means; Mrs. Thomas Dudson, membership; Mrs. Richard Horsta, house; Mrs. Leo Burr, publicity; Mrs. Robert Squiers, spiritual and hospitality; and Mesdames Mary Gerald and Stephen Petix, cancer pads.

Society deadline is 3 p. m. each Tuesday.
