Wing Laker Is President Of Civil War Round Table

WING LAKE-FOX-CROFT—William Springer of Wing Lakes was elected president of the Abraham Lincoln Civil War Round Table of Michigan. The Oakland county group was organized a year ago at Springer's home from the original Detroit Lincoln group.

The group met Nov. 19 at the Logan County Lincoln courthouse in Greenfield Village, the organization's permanent headquarters. Meetings are conducted with the light of the old fashioned kerosene lamps.

Springer gave the main talk of the evening, commenting on Lincoln's historic speech, the famous Gettysburg address. Thomas I. Staff, founder of the original Detroit Lincoln group, was presented a scroll in India ink on parchment, making him honorary president of the Round Table group.

Purpose of the organization is to study Abraham Lincoln and the Civil War, American presidents, founders of the nation, American history in general and to foster literary interest in that direction.

Home for the Thanksgiving holiday will be the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Proctor, 6180 Wing Lake road, Kitty at the National Cathedral college in Washington, D. C. and Woody, Dartmouth college.

Joining in holiday festivities of Culver Military academy will be Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Nurne, 4200 Carey Lane. Leaving today, they will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Csernia of Lathrup to Culver, Ind., where both families will visit their sons, Dennis Nurne and Kenneth Csernia, respectively. Camping activities include a parade, Thanksgiving dinner and a formal dance.

Traditional Thanksgiving activities are in order at the Wing Lake home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Roberts, 1247 Carey Lane.
