Tea Honors Mrs. Seaton

A tea honoring Mrs. O. E. Seaton has been planned for 2 to 5 p.m., Sunday, Nov. 15, in the home of Mrs. Sidney Borg, 2916 Salem road, Huntington Woods. Chairman of the event will be Mrs. Thomas Mitzfeld of Birmingham, assisted by Mrs. Norman Bolz. Members of the Detroit Alumnae of Pi Kappa Sigma are honoring Mrs. Seaton because her husband is retiring from the Detroit Public Schools and they are moving to Florida to make their home. The honor guest has been with the chapter since its formation. She has written a complete history of the group called "Golden Years of Pi Kappa Sigma."

AT THE tea, Miss Theodora Johnson will take pictures to be signed by the guests for presentation to Mrs. Seaton. Mrs. Seaton is supervisor in the College of Education at Wayne University. Mrs. Rod Brandon will be among the alumnae attending from Birmingham.

Shirley Hersey Hostess For Delta Gamma

Delta Gamma alumnae group 2 will hold a meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 10, at 8 p.m., at the home of Miss Shirley Hersey, 460 West Maple road. Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. Wayne White, Mrs. Anna Jean Christian and Mrs. Robert Montgomery. All Delta Gammans in this area may attend this meeting. Reservations may be made with any of the hostesses.

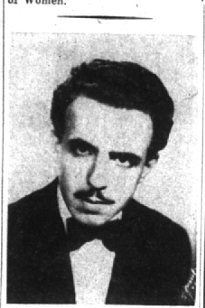

LEADING THE FIELD among Birmingham Parent-Teacher associations is Torry PTA which last week mailed a 20-page directory to parents of children enrolled there. The roster includes the names of all children, by grades; the names, addresses and phone numbers of all parents; schedules of activities; school personnel; groups using school facilities and leaders with other miscellaneous information. The directory was compiled by Mrs. Fred Harris, shown here with Richard Featherstone, Torry principal; Thomas Heydon and Mrs. Charles Wharton. "So far as we know," Mrs. Harris said, "nothing like this has ever been done by school parents before. We sincerely hope it will be of aid to those concerned and serve as a means of closer relationship among all of us." (Eccentric Staff Photo)

AAUW Speaker Member of UN

Guest speaker for the November 11 meeting of the Birmingham branch of the AAUW at the Community House will be Olive Remington Goldman. She is a United States representative on United Nations Commission on Status of Women. Mrs. Goldman, who is on the Illinois board of the American Association of University Women and is a resident of Urbana, Ill., has chosen as her topic "Woman—No Lifeless Rib."

FRANCESCO DI BLASI

Concert Master, Violinist, Conductor For Woman's Club

Francesco Di Blasi presented Jack Boesen, violinist, who played a movement of a Beethoven Sonata for the Birmingham Woman's club on Tuesday in the Community House. Mr. Boesen is concert master and conductor of the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra. He was formerly concert master of the Scandinavian Symphony during the tour of the Scandinavian countries in 1949. At the present time he is one of the outstanding artists in the first violin section of the Detroit Symphony. Di Blasi, who will accompany Boesen, conducted several orchestras in the east, as well as the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo for two years. Di Blasi is also a member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. The Pontiac Symphony was reorganized last February and presented two concerts which were well received. Rehearsals are held on Tuesdays at Lincoln junior high school. A series of subscription concerts is planned for the coming season.
