STRICTLY FRESH Adam and Eve had no clothes, no dwelling, and all they had to eat were apples. And they thought they were in paradise, too. Indianapolis man was vacationing his wife to drive in a graveyard. Auto crashed into tombstone. No one killed, but auto rests in pieces. False teeth have been devised with opposing magnets in upper and lower plates. According to reports they keep snapping right even when eating peanut butter. Better watch out for that iron in spinach, there!
