Get an Automatic GAS
CLOTHES DRYER

Only Gas
dries clothes so fast...
costs so little to run

HERE'S WHAT AN AUTOMATIC Gas CLOTHES DRYER DOES!

1. Makes clothes last longer. No line-whepping or clothespin rips. Gentle tumbling action dries clothes in minutes.
2. Cuts down on ironing. Until you actually see it work, it's hard to believe how wrinkle-free your clothes are when they come out of an automatic gas dryer.
3. Lets you dry any time - day or night, rain or shine, fast as the clothes come from the washer.
4. Frees you for more important things. A gas dryer is fully automatic - push button off of "drip dry" or "storage dry" - wherever you set the dial.
5. Gives you sweeter-smelling wash - actually sunshine-sweet.

Put an END to clothes drying chores and
weather worries

Obituary Notices

CAROLYN KONYNE SALISBURY, 91, of 357 Westchester Way, Birmingham, died Sept. 28 following a long illness. Born in Fonda, New York, Mrs. Salisbury was married to the late William Salisbury and was the mother of William C. Salisbury, deceased. She was a member of the Episcopal church. Private funeral services were held Monday with burial at Acacia Park cemetery. The Rev. Harold E. Tomco, pastor of St. James Episcopal church, officiated.

LEONA MARGARET SCHULZ, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph F. Schulz, 3191 Harris, Ferndale, died at her home Thursday after an illness of four years. Leona was born on Christmas Day in 1941 in Ferndale. She attended Log Cabin school up to the sixth grade in Troy township where the family formerly lived. Surviving besides her parents are a sister, Mary E., at home, and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Denton, Belleville. Funeral services were held Saturday from the Spiller-Gramer funeral home with the Rev. Harvey W. Cochran of Sunny Acres Temple officiating. Burial was at White Chapel Memorial cemetery. Leona was paralyzed by polio in August 1949. She spent nearly four months in an iron lung and had been under treatment by the Sister Kenny Foundation. Pneumonia was listed as the cause of her death.

DEVO C. DAVENPORT, 63, of 744 Eldredale, died Sept. 20 at Bad Axe general hospital, Bad Axe, Mich., following an extended illness. Mr. Davenport was born in Troy township on March 25, 1886 and was educated in Birmingham schools. He married Lottie Heinze on Sept. 25, 1912, who survives. Also surviving are four sisters, Mrs. Bert Cox of Flint, Misses Ellen and Mabel Davenport and Mrs. Edward Smith of Birmingham. Mr. Davenport retired from his position with Detroit Edison 11 years ago. He and Mrs. Davenport were living at their summer home in Port Austin, Mich., at the time of his death. Funeral services were from the MacAlpin funeral home in Bad Axe with the Rev. Harold Parker, pastor of the Community church of Port Austin, officiating. Burial was in the family plot at Colfax cemetery, Bad Axe.

JOHN I. BURKET, 65, of 786 Cambridge, Berkeley, died suddenly at his home Sunday night. Mr. Burket was born Nov. 22, 1887, in Parkersburg, W. Va. He attended public schools in Virginia and attended the University of W. Virginia. He lived at the Berry address for the last five years and was a former resident of Birmingham. Mr. Burket had been currently employed as purchasing agent for Continental Motors and was formerly associated with several Birmingham realtors. He was a member of the First Baptist church, Birmingham. Surviving are his widow, Mabel I. Burket, two sons, Jack F. Burket of Highland Park and Richard A. Burket of Albion, Mich.; his mother, Mrs. Carrie Hurlbut, Berkeley, and one granddaughter. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. with the Rev. C. F. Hamilton, pastor of the First Baptist church of Berkeley, officiating. Interment was in Roseland Park cemetery.

MISS DAINY ADAMS JOHNSON, 74, who lived with her niece, Mrs. Ray E. Forsyth at 32775 Lahser, Birmingham, Southfield twp., died at Henry Ford hospital Tuesday after a long illness. Miss Johnson was born in Calumet, Mich., May 29, 1879. Living in Birmingham for the last three years, she had retired from her position as chief operator of the Michigan Bell telephone company. Mrs. Forsyth is her only survivor. Funeral services will be from Bell Chapel of the Wm. R. Hamilton company Friday at 11 a.m. Entombment will be at White Chapel Memorial cemetery.

Judge R. Holland's Wife Passes Away

Mrs. Ruth H. Holland, 50, of Pontiac, the wife of Judge H. Russell Holland, Oakland county circuit court, died at her home Sept. 29 following an illness of three months. She will lie in state at the Farmer-Snoover funeral home, West Haven, Pontiac. In lieu of flowers, the family of Mrs. Holland has requested that expressions of sympathy be made in the form of donations to the American Cancer Society. Rosary services were held at the funeral home at 8:45 a.m. Thursday. Funeral services will be tomorrow (Friday) at St. Vincent De Paul church, Pontiac at 9:30 a.m. Burial will be at Mt. Hope cemetery, Pontiac.
