The first organizational meeting of local workers for the 1953 United Foundation Torch Drive will be held on Friday, Oct. 16, 10 a. m., at the Wing Lake road home of Mrs. Luther Lawrence, chairman. Campaign material will be distributed and coverage instructions given. The first UP kick-off luncheon for the Birmingham-Bloomfield section is scheduled for Monday, Oct. 19 at the Community House. All workers are invited to attend.

The 13th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Davis of Wing Lake road, on Sept. 30 was one they will not soon forget. Labeling it their "second honeymoon," the Davises boarded a plane for New York where they whirled away a week in sight-seeing, catching the latest plays and TV shows, nightclubbing, dining in the smartest restaurants and really doing the town. It was Mrs. Davis' first trip east and she arrived home breathless but in top form to campaign for the Torch Drive again this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Foltz of Foxcroft, spent most of last week in New York and Trenton, N. J., on a combined business and pleasure trip. Being Detroit Lions football fans, they hurried back Sunday, and showed the large crowd of fans to Briggs stadium to watch the Lions battle the San Francisco Forty-Niners.

Another 13th wedding anniversary was celebrated on Sept. 28 by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beker, of Foxcroft. They dined and danced with friends at a Detroit club. The following week-end the Bekers shepherded the Cranbrook junior naturalists on a field trip to Kettle Pointe, Canada, where they collected fossils, studied formations and wild life. Walter Nichol, science instructor at Cranbrook, accompanied the group of 40 boys and girls and lectured during the excursion. Mr. Walter Fiedle, of West Maple road drove in the caravan and lent a guiding hand. The Fiedle youngsters, along with the Beker children, plus a nine-year-old nephew, Billy Garey, of Roseville, houseguest of the Bekers, were among the students.

Several Foxcroft members of the Birmingham Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association attended the first fall meeting last Monday at the Community House. Those on hand at the harvest breakfast at 10:45 a. m. were Mrs. Frederick C. Fleming, Mrs. Robert Thom and Mrs. Harry Calvert. Guest speaker on the theme of "The Byrd of Royal Oak,"

Shea of Indianwood Trail, chalked up another year on that date, as did his daughter-in-law, Mrs. William Shea, who came in from Cincinnati with her husband to houseguest a few days and celebrate the double header. The four Sheas enjoyed birthday festivities at the Kingsley Inn.

Merle Sullivan of Wing Lake, also observed his natal day on Oct. 5, with Mrs. Sullivan's falling on the following day. They were guests of honor at a dinner party hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Horste, of Redfern road, commemorating the dual event. Other guests adding their congratulations were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Seibert, of Indianwood Trail.

A good many preschool and grade school young fry are abuzz about the "Pied Piper" starring TV star "Milk" in person, to be presented at the Will-O-Way Playhouse on Oct. 16 at 5 p. m. This play is a unique and unusual sense that it is being produced and directed by eight-year-old Marcee Merrill, daughter of the Will-O-Way Merrills, and her debut as a producer-director is being watched with interest. Tickets may be obtained in the schools.

A substantial quota of Wingerofers attended the public meeting of the Bloomfield Hills board of education on Monday of last week at Vaughan school. Activities of the board to date were outlined, including a thorough investigation into the present expansion problems of the district and a forecast of future needs. Plans for the new high school, with charts and drawings, were presented by the architect, plus a full description of facilities. Edward Proctor, board president, stated that efforts are under way to get a bond proposal to finance the expansion before voters between Nov. 15 and Dec. 1, and that the board was currently investigating the possibility of additions to Wing Lake school.

Entertains at Dinner Honoring Anniversary

Mrs. William Slocum of 17428 Beechwood, Southfield township, entertained at dinner in her home Sunday, honoring the 25th wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Marr of Detroit.

Among the invited guests present were Mrs. Harley Rouse, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cullum and Miss Shirley Marr. Out of town guests included Miss Jane Hanlon and Mrs. George Kennebec of Chicago.
