

Regional Meeting For Soroptimists

Six Birmingham Soroptimists and three Venture club members will make the journey to Cleveland, Ohio for the Midwestern Regional Conference of Soroptimist and Venture clubs, being held this weekend.

Taking the trip will be Soroptimists Helen Larkin, president, Irene Hanley, Elsie Woolley, Mabel Sorenson, Irene Buck and Marion Meadowcroft. Venturists going are Marion Fleming, Marilyn Staley and Betty Conrath.

Various plans for the year were discussed at the last dinner meeting.

The main study project will be civilian defense. In the benefit line, each member will, by her own talents, earn $10 by Feb. 1 to be contributed to the club and used for neglected children and the cancer fund. These two groups will also benefit from any fund raising activities of the club.

The Soroptimists will also sponsor a Venture club bowling team.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Sylvia Vreel to Arthur Shaw was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael C. Vreel, at a recent cocktail party in their Cranbrook road home. FRANKLIN—Henry Weed, who spent last weekend near St. Paul, Minn., duck hunting, came home with his limit. He will take off for Snowball, Minn. this weekend to try his luck at partridge hunting. Mr. and Mrs. George Rothrock are back in their home on Oakleaf lane after a week in Boston. On their way home they stopped at Geneva, N.Y. for a few days' visit with relatives.

Mrs. Harry Barr opened her home on Meadowdale lane last Thursday afternoon for dessert luncheon and an afternoon party. Guests from Franklin were Mrs. Samuel Gavne, Mrs. Roy Trout and Mrs. Paul Robertson, Mrs. George Rothrock, Mrs. Carl Rasmussen, Mrs. Von Polhemus and Mrs. Walter Byers.

The Barrs were hosts to 60 guests at a buffet dinner at their home last Sunday afternoon. The occasion was the 40th wedding anniversary of Mrs. Barr's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Davis.

Cathy and Lee Carkner, nine and fourteen-year-old daughters of the Roy Carkners, were home from boarding school in Canada last weekend. The Carkners' Bingham road home is jumping with activity over the weekend with Lee having 20 guests in on Saturday evening and Cathy having 14 of her young friends on Sunday afternoon at a buffet dinner.

The David Bartelsons, 14-Mile road, were among the throng at East Lansing last Saturday for the Michigan State-Texas Christian University game. Six year old son "J. D." attended the game with his parents.

The Friendly Circle will hold its October meeting at noon next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Robert Grouse, 26180 Normandy road. Mrs. Carl Binkle of Birmingham will give a book review of the autobiography of Grandma Moses, with pictures and other supplementary material.

St. Anne's guild held its October meeting yesterday at the Wellington road home of Mrs. D. Clare McKay. Co-hostesses at the dessert luncheon were Mrs. John McGibbon and Mrs. Harold Longway. The Rev. Robert of Duns Scotus College, addressed the group on the third order of St. Francis.

Mrs. Arthur Hays, Appletree Lane, held a get-acquainted and church-work meeting for her neighbors in the La Mesa section last Tuesday evening. The ladies brought needlework and the like for the annual bazaar of the Franklin Community Church circles or work related to whatever church they might belong. Her guests that evening were Mrs. Jack LeVan, Mrs. Willard Hart, Mrs. Jack Soltman, Mrs. John Robertson, Mrs. Ivan Smith, Mrs.

Church Groups to Meet
