Ticket arrangements made for Young People's concerts beginning Oct. 31.

Concert Series Begins Oct. 31

Junior League of Birmingham is helping the Detroit Junior League and the Women's and Junior Women's Associations for Detroit Symphony to present a series of four young peoples' concerts this season.

"World of Music" is the theme for the concerts by the Detroit Symphony orchestra, conducted by Valter Poole. Each concert will feature Miss Laurentine Collins as guest commentator. The four programs, one hour long, are scheduled at 11 o'clock Saturday mornings of Oct. 31, Nov. 28, Feb. 20 and March 6, in the Masonic Auditorium.

Designed to give a liberal education in music to young people and their parents, the themes for each concert will differ. One program will highlight the orchestra, another features music from other lands, a third depicts dances from classical to modern and the fourth shows off the orchestra with soloists.

Mrs. Robert Wardrop is chairman of the groups spreading word of the program in these areas. General chairman for the concerts is Mrs. Daniel W. Goodenough.

Working with Mrs. Wardrop are Mrs. John K. Bagby, Mrs. Winthrop B. Conrad, Mrs. Harris Grether, Mrs. John D. Rumsey, Mrs. Hurl R. Shurley, Jr., Mrs. George E. Squibb, Mrs. Robert Vanderkloot and Mrs. R. Jamison Williams.

West Beverly Women Launch Torch Drive

By VIRGINIA DETWILER Staff Correspondent Midwest 4-3820

WEST BEVERLY—Although the official kickoff date for the Torch Drive is Oct. 20, it has already begun for West Beverly campaign workers, who met in the homes of three area captains this week to receive instructions, and meet Mrs. Lenore B. Quinn, regional director.

Mrs. W. K. Ginnam is captain of one group, which met Monday in her Beverly road home. Workers are Mrs. Russell Blackburn, Mrs. G. D. Olmstead, Mrs. Charles Hartner, Mrs. Kurt Sell, Mrs. George Adams, Mrs. Henry Welch, Mrs. Hugh Kitchen, Mrs. Jack Soudter, Mrs. Herbert Green, Mrs. Warren Risk, Mrs. Fenwick Crane and Mrs. Charles Dameron.

Workers in Mrs. Charles Vogel's group met in her Beaconsfield road home Tuesday afternoon. Included are Mesdames Lee Durham, Mark Cheevers, Chet Guilmet, Bradley Stephenson, Harold Van Horn, Fred Niedermiller, Jr., Robert Lakatos, Samuel Trade, Donald Kalmbach, Frank Johnson, Steve Manhardt, Doris Ansteth, Norris Host, Harry Wood and Robert McMillan.

The third group, consisting of Mrs. Thomas E. Husted, Mrs. Alec Lindsay, Mrs. Francis McCracken, Mrs. A. F. Bloetscher, Mrs. Albert Kray, Mrs. W. F. Read, Mrs. H. M. Marko, Mrs. James Leach and

Mrs. F. J. Starob, met in the Kirkshire road home of Mrs. Phil Detweiler, Tuesday morning.

Congratulations are in order for H. G. Lackey, of Buckingham road, who was promoted on Sept. 1, to the position of Detroit city manager for Chevrolet motor division. B. E. Billings, of Birmingham, has taken over Lackey's former position as assistant zone manager.

Jack Curley of Bedford road was fortunate enough to climb far enough up that waiting list to squeeze into the Law Quadrangle club at the University of Michigan, where he is a freshman in law school.

About 110 West Beverly women turned out for the luncheon and fashion show at the Community House on Oct. 9. They came, bearing tickets printed on the Alvin Knorr's top, press, and many left carrying Carven Mirandese pumpkins created as centerpieces by decorations committee members, Mrs. R. D. Detscher, Mrs. W. R. Irvine and Mrs. H. L. Wyatt.

Mrs. Charles Clark and Mrs. R. Alan Pennington of Bedford road left immediately after the fashion show Friday, to join their husbands for a trip to Columbus, where they attended the Illinois, Ohio State football game.

Pictured in the Eccentric last week, doing their bit for community service, were four members of Girl Scout Troop 326, led by Mrs. James Keene and Mrs. Harold Reasoner. They filled the packets to be used by workers for the Torch Drive. The four are Judy Kalmbach, Sharon Walters, Karen Keene and Sue Brungate.

The troop, which held its second meeting of the season last week at the home of Mrs. Floyd Walters, on Devonshire road, also plans to wrap prizes for the Birmingham Halloween party. International Friendship is the first field the girls have selected for work toward attainment of their curvud bars.

A new troop of ten sixth grade Girl Scouts held their first meeting last week at the home of Mrs. Donna Kalmbach, of Bedford road. Mrs. Kalmbach and Mrs. Clarence McGee, of W. 11-Mile road, are co-leaders of the troop, which has been assigned the number 344. The girls will begin working toward their first class badge by making skirts and aprons, which will earn them badges in sewing.

Telephone bridge parties for Circle 1 of the Congregational church of Birmingham, were held on Sept. 30, in the homes of Mrs. William Rigley, of Bedford road, and Mrs. H. M. Goodhue, of Dunblaine road.
