MRS. FREDERICK C. ECKHOUT

Mr. and Mrs. Eckhout Honeymoon in Bermuda

Bloomfield Hills Country club was the scene of the reception following marriage vows between Mary Patricia McGinnis and Frederick Charles Eckhout. The Rev. Ralph Barton officiated at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, Oct. 10, at Holy Name church. The Papal blessing was received.

Mary is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. McGinnis of Shirley drive. Fred is the son of Mrs. Frederick A. Eckhout of Detroit and the late Mr. Eckhout.

The bride wore a gown of lace with long sleeves, illusion neckline and a border of white pleated nylon down the back and around the bottom forming the chape train. Her short veil was caught to a Juliet cap of lace matching the dress. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and ivy centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Vincent E. Hayes was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a green shantung dress with a panel of velvet down the back and a velvet bolero. Her flowers were gold chrysanthemums and ivy, with a halo of the same flowers in her hair.

Bridesmaids were Sheila and Maureen McGinnis, sisters of the bride. Their gowns were identical to the matron of honor only in rust and gold shantung. Sheila's maids were rust colored and Maureen's were burgundy. The girls were matching halos in their hair.

Flower girl Kitty Coyle, cousin of the bride, wore a short frock of dark green velvet trimmed in white lace and a bouquet and halo of rust chrysanthemums.

Bill Thibault was best man, while seating the guests were William French, Robert Dudley and F. J. McGinnis, Jr., brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McGinnis chose a slate blue taffeta dress with a pink hat. Mrs. Eckhout wore a medium blue taffeta dress with blue hat and both mothers had corsages of pink gardenias.
