

Tazewell, Va.—J. H. Hall, 93, of Mercer county, W. Va., married Roxie Bailey Rutherford, 63, of Bristol, Va., recently. Roxie is the step-daughter of Hall's daughter Annie, who married Roxie's father, John W. Bailey. Therefore, Hall is a son-in-law of his own daughter, and also a son-in-law of his own son-in-law. He is Bailey's father-in-law, which makes Bailey a father-in-law of his own father-in-law. Furthermore, the new Mrs.

Hall is now mother-in-law to her own father, and Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Bailey are each other's stepmother. Mr. Hall and Mrs. Bailey are stepsons to one another, and the two wives are stepdaughters to each other.

 Husband: "No, but I have often wondered what he would do if he had mine."

Buy's 'Old' Shoes

Larned, Kan.—After trying on practically every pair of shoes in the store, an elderly man was leaving, without finding anything he liked. He noticed those worn by another customer, Chester Crane. The elderly man finally persuaded Crane to sell him his slightly-worn, comfortably broken-in shoes. Crane walked out with a new pair of shoes, paid for by the old man.

A Mean Trick

Hodgenville, Ky. — Somebody played a dirty trick on Sheriff Joe Burnett, of Wayne County, a 220-gallon moonshine still—one of the largest ever discovered in Larue County, of which Hodgenville is the county seat — was set up in a heavily wooded ravine in a remote section of Burnett's farm.

Bloomfield Hills Farm Subdivided for Homes

Max Broock Inc., Birmingham realtors, have recorded the new plat of "Rudgate," their new residential development on Lone Pine Road in Bloomfield, near Cranbrook School. The 160-acre Webber-O'Brien fruit farm is the last large parcel average slightly more than an acre of acreage in the Cranbrook area in size and only 74 lots will be developed. Six months were ferred now with an additional 45 spent in planning the sites which held for-future plotting.

Pleasantly winding roads, bearing such New England names as Huntington Drive, Kenesha Court, Falmouth Drive, Thetford Lane and Woods Hole Way, have been built to Oakland County and Bloomfield City specifications.

Formerly one of the best producing orchards in the area, the new development takes full advantage of the beautifully rolling terrain and the wooded hills and valleys.

F. M. BROOCK said yesterday, is describing the subdivision, "We have planned "Rudgate" painstakingly as a superior addition to the present high standards of Bloomfield residential areas.

"There are not enough sections devoted to the finest residential construction and "Rudgate" is designed to complement the neighborhood and to maintain the best of architectural and building standards.

"The planning and city commissions of Bloomfield Hills have been most cooperative with us in our effort to do the best possible job Bloomfield Hills may well be proud of "Rudgate"

Several individuals have already started planning their new homes in the development and sales will commence, through Max Broock Inc., within the next few weeks. Three homes will be built for sale by prominent builders this fall.
