

Plans Completed For Presbyterian Big Fall Bazaar

Final plans for the Nov. 5 and 6 bazaar of the First Presbyterian church during the meeting held last week at the home of Mrs. Raymond Giffels on Olegary road.

Church Women Schedule Meetings for Oct. 28

Bazaar plans will occupy several of the circles of the First Presbyterian church when their 1 o'clock meetings are held on Oct. 28.

Church School Tots Need New Toys For Classrooms

Even in church school tots wear out and the pre-school-age youngsters at Christ Church Cranbrook have reached the state of "sturdy toys."

Feature Special Gowns At Christ Church Sale

Crowds attending the rummage sale Oct. 29, sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of Christ Church Cranbrook, will find coffee and doughnuts being served to help hold off the nip in the air and make the waiting time go faster.

FLOR PEETERS AT THE CONSOLE

Noted Composer to Open Organ Program

Flor Peeters, internationally-known organist of Malines, Belgium, will open the organ recital series at the First Baptist church on Friday, Oct. 23, at 8 p.m.

Peeters, currently on an American tour, is organist of the Metropolitan Cathedral at Malines, Belgium. He is also director and professor of organ at the Royal Flemish conservatory in Antwerp. His local recital will include numbers from the masters of the organ, modern pieces and one of his own compositions.

BEFORE THE late war, Flor Peeters was greatly admired and enjoyed by the local court. King Albert and Queen Elizabeth were frequent tenants at his concerts. It was Peeters who played the great cathedral organ for both the sad and joyous occasions of the royal family.

Two Episcopal Groups Plan Work Sessions For Christmas Bazaar

Work on the annual Christmas bazaar of St. James church groups will be done at the Oct. 28 meeting of St. Catherine's guild. The women will meet in the Sunday school rooms at 8 p.m.

Family Dinner Planned By Congregationalists

A family dinner is planned for members of the Congregational church at 6:30 p.m. Oct. 27.

Plan Monthly Dinners

Hinging on the success of the hot luck dinner Oct. 9, when 75 persons from the Unitarian Fellowship attended, plans have been made to continue these affairs.

Feature Special Gowns At Christ Church Sale

For every member of the family. Special emphasis, this year, seems to be on hunting pants, however. There will be all types of clothing for any and all events. Jewelry, household items including furniture, utensils, draperies and the like.

Another unusual item, mentioned by the committee is a fall dress suit, custom made, boy's size 14. "It certainly would be ideal for a young boy taking part in his sister's wedding," one worker commented.

In addition, the sale will carry the customary display of clothing

Parents and Children Will Trade Services At Cranbrook Church

"Turnabout" will be the theme at Christ Church Cranbrook for the Family services on Sunday, Oct. 25.

Parents, instead of remaining in the church for the regular service, will go to the various classrooms to which their children are normally assigned. The children will forsake Sunday school lessons to remain in the church for the preaching service.

The "switch" is planned to give parents an opportunity to meet with Sunday school teachers and to discuss, with other parents, the church school aims and plans for the year.

Christian Science Church Maps Duplicate Meetings

Birmingham's First Church of Christ, Scientist, announces that beginning Nov. 8, two complete services will be held each Sunday morning, with church school at the same time.

Services will be held at 9:45 and 11:30 a.m., with the infants room opening 15 minutes before the commencement of each session.

New Methodist Circle

The new afternoon circle of Em-bury Methodist church will meet at 1:30 p.m., Tuesday, Oct. 27, with Mrs. Ruth W. Norton, 1592 Berna-ville. Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—all the society editor about them.

Presbyterian Vespers

A program of worship and fellowship is held each Sunday at 6 p.m., in the First Presbyterian church. The vesper services consist of a brief religious service, followed by refreshments and a social hour.

Ascension Congregation Discuss Future at Dinner

Plans for the future of Ascension Lutheran church will be discussed at a rally dinner to be held in the Community House on Oct. 28. The Rev. E. Mueller of Marysville, will lead the talks.

The dinner will be arranged for adult members of the congregation who should make reservations with the pastor, the Rev. Paul Shippert.

SUNDAY SERMON TOPICS

SUNDAY, OCT. 23
First Methodist
The Rev. Arnold F. Runkel will preach on "Except Ye Be Converted." Services are at 11 a.m. church school at 9:45 a.m.

Congregational
The Rev. Robert D. Dewey, newly appointed pastor at this church, will preach at the 1 p.m. service in the First Presbyterian church on North Woodward. Church school classes are scheduled for the same hour.

Presbyterian
The Rev. Robert Graham, assistant minister, will preach on "When A Man Answers God," in observance of Layman's Sunday. His text is from Ezekiel 20:30. "And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none."

Redeemer Lutheran
Reformation Sunday will be observed at both the 9:30 and 10:30 a.m. services, when the Rev. Theodor Wuggazer preaches on "A Confession."

Unitarian
"The Declaration of Human Rights" is the topic selected by the Rev. Russell J. Lincoln, minister of the Birmingham Unitarian Fellowship. His 10 a.m. sermon in the YMCA building will be in observance of United Nations Week.

Christian Science
What is the state of man in the world to come is explained in the lesson sermon on "Probation after Death." The text is from Isaiah 9:2. "The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined." Services are now being held at 9:45 and 11:30 a.m., with church school at the same hour.

Ascension Lutheran
Taking his text from Theophilus 1:13-14, the Rev. Paul Shippert will preach on "Blameless at the Coming of Our Lord," as this congregation observed the annual Reformation service.

First Baptist
"Jesus Christ, His Son Our Lord," will be the sermon topic for the Rev. Emil Kontz as he continues his series of sermons on "Basic Christian Beliefs," taken from the "Apostles Creed."

Family Dinner Planned By Congregationalists
A family dinner is planned for members of the Congregational church at 6:30 p.m. Oct. 27. The affair will be held in the social hall of the First Presbyterian church.

Plan Monthly Dinners
