Baptist Children Tri-Delt Guests

Presents and essays were predominant among the 21 kiddies at the Baptist Children's home on Wednesday night at the annual Halloween party given by Group 2 of the Birmingham Alliance of Delta Delta Delta.

Children gathered in the dining room cleared of furniture and decorated with pumpkins and skeletons. After running suitcase races, bobbing for apples and winning prizes for their efforts, the children saw a movie before they gathered around for refreshments.

THE TRI-DELTA group presents the home with homemade cookies each week, plans an annual Halloween party, gives gifts of records, table linens and pictures for rooms.

Tri-Delta alumnae who worked with their project chairmen were Mrs. Joe T. Atkins, Mrs. Thomas P. Marker and Mrs. Donald G. Remp, all of Birmingham; Mrs. Robert Swanson of Franklin; Mrs. William Ceder and Mrs. Richard E. Strom of Royal Oak; and Mrs. Colman G. Manuel of Beverly Hills.

McAllister I. Booth is among the 18 members elected to honorary societies for senior men, the Sphinx Head and Quill and Dagger, at Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y. in the school of mechanical engineering. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Booth, 845 Fairfax.

Wingeroff Seeks Sun As Autumn Chill Hits

By JILL ROBERTS Staff Correspondent
MAYfair 6-3022

WING LAKE—FOXcroft—With the last of the autumn leaves tossing in a chill October wind, localities are already drifting southward to sunny climes. Leading off in the exodus are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McGrover of Wing Lake, who left Sunday for Hot Springs, Va. They will headquarter for a week at the Homestead.

First of the Florida contingent are Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bohner, of Worlington road, who are leaving next week for the warm sands of Ft. Lauderdale where they will spend about six weeks.

Several dinner parties filled the social calendar over the weekend. A new twist in entertaining was apparent Saturday afternoon and evening when Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Gould of Foxcroft and 20 guests at a TV football party in their Monterey road home. The archaic spectators enjoyed a buffet supper served after the televised game.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Garlick, of Wing Lake road, gave a dinner party for 10 Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chaffee of Birmingham, who are moving to Syracuse, N. Y. in the near future. Among the guests gathered to wish them goodspeed were Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Craig, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Towhead, 50th of Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. James Garlick, Jr., of Bloomfield Hills.

Also entertaining at dinner and bridge Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Loren E. Nail, of Caryville, Ala. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. David Bayne, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Diederich and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barlow, all of Detroit.

Local friends of Sgt. Thomas C. Carey, USMC, son of Mrs. T. C. Carey and the late Mr. Carey, formerly of Wing Lake and Foxcroft, will be introduced to him that he is coming home from the wars. After serving more than a year on Korean battlefronts, Tom is returning only on the west coast awaiting discharge. He is due to arrive in Detroit on Oct. 31 where a family homecoming and a prospective bride will roll out the red carpet for the returning Marine. After several postponements due to military reasons, his wedding to Barbara Byrne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Byrne, of Detroit, will take place on Nov. 7 at the Presentation church in Detroit.

In honor of the bride-elect, a miscellaneous shower was given on Oct. 15 by Mrs. Frank Cavan, of Foxcroft, with 21 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Foxcroft, Birmingham and Detroit present.

Bennington Alumnae Planning Movie Prevue For Friday's Meeting

Movie pictures taken at Bennington college to be released in Germany for the promotion of higher education for women, will be shown Oct. 30 at a meeting of Bennington alumnae, their husbands and friends.

Boston Guests Feted

Here from Boston to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Colby. They were honored Wednesday, Oct. 28, at a small family dinner in the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lester J. Colby of 222 Linden. The elder Mrs. Colby is the honoree today at luncheon at the Detroit Athletic club, 26 guests present.

Child Study Club Will Meet Nov. 3

Mrs. Charles Kinnison of Aspen road will be hostess to the Birmingham Child Study club at 8:15 p.m., Nov. 3. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Edwin Koran and Mrs. Barbara Lee Wallace Hudson, manager of the Hudson. Clancy agency will speak to the group on educational insurance for children.

Officers for the 1953-54 season are Mrs. Mel Hugh, president; Mrs. Arthur Burtchell, vice-president; Mrs. John Edlerbrook, secretary; Mrs. W. N. Springer, treasurer; Mrs. Edward Hewitt, publicity; Ms. C. Nickel, business and Mrs. Lloya Cooper, calling.
