MRS. THOMAS H. WILLIAMS

Williams-Caldwell Vows Spoken at Lake Charles

Lake Charles, La., was the scene Oct. 4 of the marriage of Catherine Jane Caldwell of Lake Charles and Thomas H. Williams of Birmingham.

The bride was gowned in white slipper satin with a bodice of white imported tulle lace over satin fashioned with a scalloped neckline outlined by Queen Anne's lace and seed pearls. Lace sleeves came to a point over her wrists and were outlined as the bodice. The skirt was made with lace panels and a chapel length train.

A hand-tie white satin cap trimmed with seed pearls held in place her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion. Her flowers were a traditional bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley. Catherine Jane also carried a lace handkerchief made by her great-grandmother.

THE WEDDING vows were spoken at 2 p.m. at Immaculate Conception church, with the Rev. Louis H. Boudreaux officiating. A reception followed at the home of the bride's aunt, Dr. Eleanor Cook, Lake Charles.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew T. Caldwell of Lake Charles. Thomas' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ivor H. Williams of Pilgrim road.

Mrs. Allen J. Medus, Jr., of Jennings, La., was her sister's honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Eleanor Ann McCall, niece of the bride, and Glenda Moss.

FLOOR length gowns of tulle and taffeta in varying shades of blue were worn by the attendants. Satin boleros with standup collars and push-up sleeves topped the strapless satin bodices. Wine baby-mums combined with blue tulle formed the headpieces. Each girl carried a cascade bouquet of wine chrysanthemums, with matching blue tulle and satin streamers.

Lt. Jack Perry of Lake Charles Air Force base was best man. Ushering were Major John C. Sullivan of Lake Charles, Capt. Leland F. Burch of Ellington Air Force base, Houston, Texas, John D. Caldwell of Lake Charles, brother of the bride, and Allen J. Medus, Jr., of Jennings, La.

MRS. CALDWELL chose a black crepe street dress trimmed at the neckline with gold and white brocade. White gloves, black accessories and an orchid corsage completed her costume. Slate blue taffeta was worn by the groom's mother, with light blue hat and black accessories. Her corsage was also an orchid.

A light blue faille suit with jeweled collar was worn by the new Mrs. Williams for her wedding trip to New Orleans. A golden throat white orchid completed her accessories of black velvet jeweled hat and black suede accessories.

Magnificent Possession

"HOME"
There's magic in the word! And there is today the beginning of a rediscovery of what it means to us all—for these threatening times make us realize genuine values. Thus it is most natural that into the minds and hearts of all there creeps the deep conviction that our homes are of surpassing importance. The provision of things of beauty for the home has long been a division of our service in which we have taken keen pleasure: thus contributing to that magnificent possession known as home!
